TRIO OF PRIZE ONE-ACTS TO BE STAGED MAY 2, 3

This year’s production of the TAP ( Theta Alpha Phi) one-act plays will take place at the College Theater on May 2 and 3 at 8:15. The plays being produced are the three winners of the TAP Original One-Act Playwriting Contest of 1951. The show is being presented entirely as a project of TAP. The production will also constitute an event on the Junior Weekend schedule.

Hello. At the first prize winner of the playwriting contest, was written by a June 1951 graduate, Jack Cutcheon. This play could, perhaps, be called comedy of human relationships. Wilson, and the wife of the Cobbler and his wife, and Stefan Mancini will play Father Alberti. Completing the cast will be the rest of the characters: Ann McClure, Charlotte Tynan, and Jacqueline Kelly.

The fourth presentation of the evening is a collection of jewels and be in- thing Parquet, and the Cobbler's wife will be played by Susan Duff. The "Cobbler" is composed of the entire student body. TALLCOTT TO RETIRE IN JUNE

Dr. Robert A. Tallcott and Mrs. Jennie W. Tallcott are retiring from the teaching staff of Ithaca College this year. It is with sincere regret that the students here will say goodbye to these people. Dr. Tallcott will continue to give readings. Whatever they do, everyone at Ithaca College will do the best of luck and continued success.

Tallcott was graduated from Syracuse University in 1939, receiving the A.B. degree; in 1937, she received her M.A. degree from Cornell University.

At the time Mrs. Tallcott came to Ithaca, in 1932, the college had not received any male students. She is known as "The Ithaca Conservatory and Affiliated Schools. When the conservatory was given permission to give degrees and thus became Ithaca College, Mrs. Tallcott was given the task of revising the school's academic regulations and incorporating the administration according to the state requirements. Thus, as director of the academic department from 1932 to 1951, she started the library, instituted the 85-minute class period, and compiled a catalogue, and acted as chairman for the committee which recommended the use of honor points and their relation to scholarship rating and class attendance. In later years, she introduced Freshman Orientation Week and organized and taught courses in art appreciation and in human relations.

Mrs. Tallcott's extra-curricular work paralleled the development of the college's student government. Her activities included the following: Faculty Advisor of the Cynsgm from 1927 to 1929. Faculty Advisor of Classes in 1930 and 1931.

Juniors Weekend will move into town and set up its tents on Fri. afternoon at 5:00, with its official opening, "The Circus Comes to Town." Next on the schedule will be the TAP One-Act Plays at the College Theatre on Fri. night at 8:15. The show will precede the "Midway Dance" in the Student Lounge at 10:00.

On Sat. afternoon, the annual Junior Weekend float parade will take place. The "Circus Parade" will be held on the State Street Wjitl Park at 2:00 p.m. It will be composed of 14 floats representing the various groups and organizations at Ithaca College.

The parade will also include the Ithaca College Marching Band. A trophy will be awarded for the most imaginative float. The parade will be followed by the correlation ceremonies which will be presented at DeWitt Park at 3:00 p.m. At this time, the Senior King and Queen, the Junior Princess and Princesses, and their court will be announced. By Jim Clarke

For this week's question, let's move our scene to the other end of campus. A group of students, picked at random throughout the college, were asked, "Who would you like to see as the second lady of the United States?" The answers were quite diverse:

1. What is your cumulative scholarship index for the semester ended Jan. 31, 1952?

2. What portion of your expenses must you personally earn during the next semester?

3. Have you ever worked for Alten-Wales?

During the past years, the Alten-Wales Division has given the school $100 for the scholarship fund; this year it has increased the amount by adding another $200 to the fund.

For an answer to these questions must be turned in by May 10.

Students Attend Confab

The Empire State Intercollegiate Publication Conference was sponsored by the Utica College chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, to be held on May 15, will bring together several of the finest and most productive college publications in the nation. Only 15 of the 50 colleges invited to attend the conference will have its student newspaper represented. The Utica College student newspaper, the "Ithacan," has been invited, and the entire staff will attend the conference, which will be held at Beecher Avenue, a country club located one mile north of Rome, N.Y. Hall, A.P. columnists will speak.

Our First Paper

With this issue the new staff assumes the duties of publishing your "Ithacan," and as such we have for some time been making the "Ithacan" ready for publication. Perhaps, we shall not hear the perennial remark that a "click" is operating the paper. On the contrary, only those students who wish to assume an additional responsibility are making the "Ithacan" ready for publication.

Until this time, the column "As I C. I. T." has been written by various students in each issue. As a result of this practice, different students ventilated identical discontent, or they wrote factiously about the same common currency. We shall endeavor to print as many letters as space allows.

Kappa Psi Pledges Repair Toys

Kappa Psi Alpha, instead of pre-missed pranks, gave its pledges something constructive to do on April 16. Kappa Psi Alpha, the business fraternity in Ithaca College, visited Rothschild's Department Store, where they repaired broken and scarred toys. The toys needed minor repairs such as gluing, tightening, and painting. The toys were donated by Rothschild's, Webster Boyle, of the toy department at the store, supervised the activities.

The Greek letter organization donated the repaired toys, of more than $100 in value, to the Reconstruction Home this Easter.

The pledges that were present, sitting as elves in Santa's workshop, were: Ross Swartout, of Penn Yan; Marvin Fialkoff, of Par Hookey; Richard Jones, of Ithaca; and Bob Everett, of Blenheim. Edward Blatchley, president of Kappa Psi Alpha, Robert Chantler, asst. pledge master also helped out.

Officers of the Fraternity said that they planned to continue the plan of having the pledges "do something constructive" rather than under go the nonsense of "hell week."

"The new campus site and the building fund drive has renewed interest in the Alumni," stated Hoerner. "Therefore a large number of graduates are expected to return to Ithaca in May."

Two new features never before held will be a clambake Sat. afternoon and a supper club at a local restaurant Sat. evening.

Other events scheduled for the reunion are a luncheon, during which the class of 1927 will be honored; orchestra, band and choir performances and a baseball game.

Senior Spotlight

Robert Perry
The president of Phi Xi Alpha, Robert Perry, receives the spotlight this week. He is not only a member of this organization, but also of Adolph and Olivia Perry.

Bob started winning scholastic honors in high school by being elected to the National Honor Society. Bob's home is in Reading, Pennsylvania, and he graduated from the Senior High School there. Slowing an almost-annual interest in school activities, he ran on the track team in Senior and Sophomore high school.

Robert Perry first learned of Ithaca College from a former music student. He says if he had to do it over again, he would come to Ithaca College because he feels he has learned and enjoyed his four years here.

During his stay here, Bob has been a member of the college choir and orchestra. As a member of the choir he has been on three tours: the spring of '51, the fall of '52, and the spring of '53. As a member of the college orchestra, he has taken part in three operas: Don In The Valley, Let's Make An Oratorio, and The Devil and Daniel Webster.

Bob started working while still in high school. Now and then, he has occasional jobs playing the violin. Bob works in the dinner hall for his meal. For the past three summers, he has been a counselor at the New England Music Camp. This is a combination of work, pleasure, and learning.

If Uncle Sam doesn't beckon to him when he graduates, Bob is interested in any kind of work, just as long as it is associated with music.

USMC Urges Students To Enroll In OCS

New York, N.Y.—There is still time for qualified college men and women to apply for enrollment in the U.S. Marine Corps Officer Candidate program according to a recent announcement by the Marine Corps Procurement Office at 246 Broadway, New York City.

Ithaca Students will not be called to active duty until after graduation, they are urged to apply now, well in advance of the expiration of their 2-SAS deteriorants.

After graduation, they will attend a 10-week Officer Candidate Course at Quantico, Va. The courses commence July 15. These new second lieutenants attend a five months specialized Officers Course. Depending upon the needs of the Marine Corps and the qualification of the individual, graduates of the Officers Course may be selected to attend additional schools such as artillery, engineer, communications school, or any of the specialized schools teaching the skills demanded by a modern Marine Corps.

Commissioned officers are required to serve on active duty for 24 months. Attendance at the above schools is credited as active duty.

Freshman, Sophomore, and Juniors are eligible for the Platoon Leader Class. Accepted applicants are trained for two 6-week periods during two separate summers. These men are promoted to the rank of corporal for the first summer training period and will receive about $145. The second summer, they are promoted to the rank of sergeant and receive about $180. There is no training during the academic year, and members of the Platoon Leader Class are draft exempt so they may complete their college education. Development Fund Nears Goal of $250,000

After six months of intensive work, the Ithaca College Campus Development Fund has secured 46% of its immediate objective—$250,000. With the alumni part of the campaign not yet in high gear and a clean up program to be carried out in the city of Ithaca, leaders of the program are confident that the $250,000 will be reached by June 20 of this year.

About 165 alumni and friends of the College in Ithaca have contributed $162,200. More than 200 committee members secured this amount last fall during the Ithaca campaign. There still remains several hundred cards in the hands of the committee. A final push effort will be launched this month to get these cards in.

Eight alumni area campaigns have been started, reports have been received from only four areas as this paper went to press. With 60% of the alumni in the Elmira, Binghamton, Rochester, and Buffalo areas contacted, the latest reports show 162 alumni in these areas have given $10,932. Excellent leadership in the City of Ithaca campaign is given by Earle De Mote, John Burne, and Harold Lautz. These men devoted many long hours to the successful organization of the program.

PHYSIO FACTS
by Mel Schorr

In the past eight months, from the beginning of the first semester until the present time, Ithaca College's physiotherapy department, under the able direction of A. Garmen Dingwall, has handled approximately 225 individual patients. The patients, whose difficulties ranged from a sprained ankle to loss of action of the extremities, were seen both from Ithaca College's student body and Ithaca residents.

Dr. Dingwall and the junior students of the physiotherapy department were and are still willing to give their time to the treatment of these patients. Treatments included ultra-violet, and infra-red treatments, as well as re-habilitation exercises to those patients recommended to the department for treatment by the infirmary or an Ithaca physician.

An acknowledgement that was greatly appreciated by the physiotherapy students came at the close of Ithaca College's football season from Joe Hamilton, coach of I.C.'s football team. In a letter addressed to Mr. Dingwall and the students of the department, Mr. Hamilton gave much credit for the team's success to the work of the physio department in supplying able trainers and treating football injuries promptly.

We are proud of our physiotherapy department, and hope you are too.

THE THEATER
by Mona Bizzorri

Hotspur, played by John Kontra-beck, became a hero of a young, courageous man of action and an adult who at times behaved like a hot-headed adolescent. As Hotspur, Kontrabecki was potentially warm and affectionate, yet kept his feelings under check. But honesty was his central quality. This difficult combination was colorfully portrayed by Kontrabecki.

In appearance Jim Peters as King Henry was regal and strong. Hidden behind the king's arrogance, however, were the underlying traits of weakness and hypocrisy.

Each of the supporting performances, however, supplemented the starring roles. The characters existed convincingly and made Shakespeare's plays and scenes sound and real defi-ately play an exciting production.

The sets were carefully designed by Donald Tawell for rapid scene changes and an overall unity. The rich, warm tones of the drops and furniture created a beautiful background for the authentic-looking costumes and the colorful makeup of the characters.
