'Ivanov' Presented on TV By I.C. Drama Department

The Ithaca College Department of Drama presented a television adaptation of Anton Chekhov's Ivanov on Sunday, May 13 from 1:00 to 2:00 at Syracuse on Channel 8. Ivanov was portrayed by Jack Kutz; Borkin by Guy Remsen; Anna Petrovna by Janice Snodgrass; Shabyelski by Henry Neuman; Ivan by Bill Alexander; Zenaeda Saveshna by Harriette Millstein; Barbakina by Judith Schwartz; Lydbeden by Howard Ingram; Kresyh by Alan Schnurmacher; Andotya Nazarovna by Christine Lucas; Saha by Suzanne Parkhill; Gavriila by Clifford Marsh; and Chekhov by Jon Farwell.

Ivanov had been presented March 12-17 in the College Green Room. The production had been offered in observance of International Theater Month.

Two performances of the play The Colner by Bernard Duffy were presented May 6 at the Canandaigua Veterans Hospital by a small group of I.C. students. James Russell was the director, and the cast consisted of Ed Musicus, Jim McKenna, Gladys Wasser, Robert Rein, and Dick DeBenedictis. Also included on the program was Jim Russell and Judy Potter's rendition of the shed scene from Brigadoon.

'Nuts in May' Presented By Camerata Quarterly

The staff of the Camerata Quarterly presented a fund-raising variety show in the Little Theatre on May 21. Called "Nuts in May". The show included a faculty skit, a satirical operetta, and songs and variety acts.

Members of the faculty set aside dignity as they satirized Faust; "Faust Loused" provided students with laughs at faculty antics. Included in the cast were Professors Harcourt, Bates, Ogden, Terwilliger, Herz, McInnes, Barley, Chen, Howland, Miller, Kolmin, and Konkle.

A satirical operetta, "In Good Queen Vickie's Golden Days", portrayed London of the 1870's. Original music was by Dick DeBenedictis, and the operetta was written and directed by Tom Monsell. The star was Sally Applegate, and featured were Ed Kechejian, Dr. Bates, Tom Fitzgerald, Guy Remsen, Alice Linville, Larry Roy, and the voice of Ed Musicus.

Jack Hewitt was the Master of Ceremonies. Between skits there were several variety acts. Bob Glover, with Sophia Stambach as the echo, sang "This I Know", an original song composed by Sally Applegate, Adella Walsh and Tiny's Trio also sang original songs by Dick DeBenedictis, and Marlene Sharak gave an exhibition of baton twirling.

Original Compositions Featured in Student Recital Tonight

A recital of student compositions will be held this Friday, May 25, at 8:15 in the College Theatre. The recital is being sponsored by the Iota chapter of Kappa Gamma Psi.

The recital of student compositions were founded in 1950 by Kappa Gamma Psi under the guidance of Mr. George King Driscoll, the fraternity's faculty advisor. They have since come under the supervision of the college's composition professor, Mr. Warren Benson.

The program includes: Prelude for Piano, Richard DeBenedictis; Trio for French Horns, Dianne Downer; Introduction and Dance for Violin and Piano, Jack O'Neill; Woodwind Quintet, John Szypula; Romanza for Violin and Piano, Clair Horn; Prelude and Scherzo (for orchestra), Jack O'Neill.

The object of this recital is to encourage the creative aspect of music and to provide a means of performance for these works. Plans for the recital for next year are being formulated now. The recital shall be held early in November. Those interested in having their works performed should have them ready early in the new school year. An audition of these works will then be held before a faculty committee, which makes the final decisions regarding the works submitted. Any IC student (graduates included) is eligible to submit work for consideration.

Dr. Dillingham To Succeed Dr. Job as Pres.

Will Be Fourth President in History of Ithaca College

Election of Dr. Howard I. Dillingham as president of Ithaca College was announced last Tuesday for the Board of Trustees by Herman E. Muller of New York, chairman.

Dr. Howard I. Dillingham

Dr. Dillingham, now vice president of Ithaca College, will succeed President Leonard B. Job, whose retirement on Feb. 15, 1957, after 25 years of service, was recently announced. He has been associated with Ithaca College since December 1951 as assistant to the president, and for the last three years as vice president. He will become the fourth president of the 64-year old college.

The Ithaca College president-elect was born Oct. 11, 1904, of Quaker parentage in Elba, Genesee County. He is the son of Mrs. J. Irving Dillingham of Ithaca and the late Mr. Dillingham.

He was graduated from the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, University of Pennsylvania, in 1927. In 1936, he was awarded the Master of Science degree, and in 1938 the Doctor of Philosophy degree in education, by Syracuse University.

After being in merchandising work with the Gorham Co., Providence, R. I., for six years, Dr. Dillingham directed the Auburn Collegiate Center for Syracuse University from 1933 to 1937. He was dean of Rider College, Trenton, N.J., for six years, and from 1944 to 1950 was headmaster of Manlius School, Manlius.

He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity; Phi Delta Kappa, honorary educational fraternity; the Ithaca Rotary Club, and the Board of Trustees of Tompkins County Memorial Hospital Corp.

Mrs. Dillingham is the former Miss Josephine Hammond, daughter of Dr. H. E. J. Hammond of 14 William St., Auburn, and a sister of Dr. J. David Hammond of 42 Grover St., Auburn. The Dillinghams have two daughters, Mrs. Donald Kress of 6 Mac Dougall St., Auburn, and Carol, 14, a freshman at Ithaca High School.

Muller, chairman of the College's Board of Trustees, said in his announcement: "Dr. Dillingham has been with the College nearly five years, and has, through his work as vice president, demonstrated his competence as a college executive. The members of the Board of Trustees have great confidence in his ability to discharge the duties of this important and difficult office."

President Job also expressed satisfaction with the selection of Dr. Dillingham as his successor. "He is a man whose training

Summer Theatre Workshop to be Held Here July 9-Aug. 1

The IC Summer Theatre Workshop, a six week study program giving eight semester-hour credits will be held July 9-August 17. This workshop introduces a new program of summer study offering a special service in the field of drama for teachers and leaders in educational and recreational work. The Summer Theatre Workshop is designed to meet the growing need of workers whose teaching and leadership responsibilities include the production of plays, operettas, and general theatrical programs. A major production will be prepared and presented by students in the college theatre for the general public.

The Summer Theatre Workshop is organized under three integrated units of instruction. In addition to the morning sessions dealing with scene painting and stage mechanics, and play production techniques each afternoon will be devoted to practical workshop activities to meet individual needs.

The total cost for tuition and fees is $150 payable at the time of registration. Persons desiring additional information may write or call (4-3330) the office of Graduate Studies, Ithaca College, or they may contact the Department of Drama (3-1317).

Delta Kappa Initiates

The new members of Delta Kappa Fraternity initiated May 17, 1956 are: Andy Allen, Jerry Brydges, Russ Buchanan, Tony Buttino, Charles Cirillo, Harrison Davis, Norm French, Bruce Griffing, Jack Getman, Paul Hess, Harry Kacandes, Art Kessler, Bruce Minoff, Lou Molisani, Salvatore Mugavero, Earl Mullins, Eric Shuster, Frank Sprague, Ross Violi, Herb Wallace, Dick Williams.

Senior Week Activities Planned By Class of 1956; Graduation on June 2

The class of '56 has planned the senior week proceedings. President Dave Feldman, Vice-President John Torrenti, and Secretary-Treasurer Betty Kolakowski, together with faculty advisor Mr. Don Wells, assistant professor of music, have planned a busy week to close the college careers of the approximately 156 seniors who will graduate.

Senior Week activities will start on Friday, May 25, with the annual moving up day exercises. The Phi Mu Alpha marching band will play during the various proceedings. Jack Hewett will be the master of ceremonies. The program will include installation of the new Student Council, recognition of the new class presidents and organization presidents. The climax of the program will be the procession of the Royal Court of Junior Weekend. The King and Queen will place crowns on the Prince and Princess. Following this the King and Queen will march out followed by the post-seniors while the Phi Mu band plays the recessional.

The annual Senior Ball will be held on Saturday, May 26, at the VFW ballroom from 10 to 2. The dance is free to seniors and their guests. Dick Ford and his Finger Lakes 5 will provide the music. The chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. Wells and Mr. and Mrs. Hood.

The events of the next five days are as follows: On Sunday there will be church in the morning and at night a Phi Mu jam session from 8:15 to 12:00. The senior banquet will be held on Monday night beginning at 7:00. The seniors will be feted again on Tuesday at the senior picnic in Lower Enfield from 1 to 6. On the 30th of May there will be a Phi Mu open house in honor of the seniors at 8:30 P.M. The seniors will rehearse the commencement proceedings at 3:00 on the afternoon of May 31 in the College Theater. The theater will also be the scene of the Theta Alpha Phi salute to seniors at 8:15 on that same evening.

The Baccalaureate services will be held at 8:15 P.M. in the Presbyterian Church on the evening of June 1. The Invocation and Benediction will be given by the Reverend Walter A. Dodds, D.D. "The Destiny of Dreams" is the title of the address which will be given by the Reverend Glenn Olds, D.D., director of Cornell University United Religious Work. The Ithaca College Choir, directed by Mr. Donald Bube, will sing at the service. Mr. Frank Eldridge will play the organ for the ceremonies.

The Presbyterian Church will also be the scene of the Commencement exercises to be held on Saturday, June 2, at 10:00 A.M. Each senior will be able to invite four guests to the exercises. The Reverend Walter A. Dodds is also giving the Invocation and the Benediction at this function. The class address will be given by President Leonard B. Job. His address is entitled, "Age of Plenty." The Ithaca orchestra, directed by Dr. Craig McHenry, will provide the music for the processional and recessional. Mr. Isadore Yavits is the marshal of the proceedings. Dr. John MacInnes and Mr. Herbert Broadwell are the assistant marshals. The marshals work with the seniors to arrange the order of the processional and practice it. The twelve ushers for Commencement and Baccalaureate have been selected from the three colleges.

Spring Weekend

The tumult and the shouting accompanying Spring Weekend is now over and "Fiesta" is just another memory. It would seem apropos for the ITHACAN to say a few words about the weekend in general. All in all, the weekend was a huge success and the class of '57 should be congratulated for a fine job of planning and carrying it out.

WITJ's "Holiday for Spring" was an excellent weekend feature and ran as smooth as clock-work from start to finish. The producer and all the people involved in covering the events for WITJ warrant much praise for a job well done. Their "Legs" contest was one of the highlights of the weekend. "Rainmaker" turned out to be one of the finest shows of the season.

After giving everyone a few bad hours, the weather joined the holiday spirit and Old Sol beamed down on a spectacular Float Parade, one of the best I.C. has yet to see. Congratulations to Delta Kappa, the first prize winner, and to all the dormitories, fraternities, and sororities who worked hard and really tuned out floats worthy of display. As with all events of this kind, there had to be a monkey-wrench in the works somewhere. In this case it was the food, or rather the lack of food at the picnic. Most groups got very little food and some got none at all from the Junior Class, although the tickets for the weekend supposedly covered that item. It was rather poor planning on someone's part that the food should be unloaded and left unguarded so that a great share of it could be stolen.

The VFW ballroom was a great improvement over the Clinton House as far as the Jam Session was concerned, but it fell short of the spaciousness of Ide's Drome for the formal dance. It's fine to dance cheek to cheek with one partner, but it gets difficult when one tries to dance back to back and elbow to elbow with three other couples. The band's playing was excellent, but this observer overheard many people saying that the proportion of slow numbers to fast ones was far too low and that the lindy music should have been left to the jam session. It always seems a little incongruous to see a girl in a formal gown and a boy in a tuxedo dancing furiously to lindy music, especially on a hot night. This criticism is not meant to discredit the fine job done by the Junior Class, but to offer constructive criticism which can perhaps be helpful to next year's Junior Class as they plan Spring Weekend of '58.

Theta Alpha Phi Presents 'Salute To Seniors'

"Salute to Seniors," the annual production of songs and sketches given in honor of the graduating class, will be held on Thursday evening, May 31st, at 7:45 P.M. in the Little Theatre. This traditional presentation is sponsored by Theta Alpha Phi. Included in this year's program will be Bill Carrozo, Sophia Stambach, Judy Potter, Bruce Follmer, Bill Elliott, Rose Dokianos and many others. Also on the agenda is a hilarious take-off on a famous drama produced here at I. C. in recent years. James McKenna, the celebrated playboy of the western campus, will act as Master of Ceremonies.

Although this evening of light entertainment is dedicated to the senior class everyone is invited.

Kappa Gamma Psi Elects Officers

Iota Chapter of Kappa Gamma Psi brought their Social year to a colorful close during I.C.'s Spring Weekend. The fraternity chose the theme for the weekend of the Cannes Film Festival. The fraternity float and house were decorated to carry out this theme.

Kappa Gamma Psi had a rather successful year with their three big projects, a formal musical early in February, the annual recital of student compositions today, and their "Program Notes", a series of lecture listening sessions. Plans for bigger and better things to come are being made now for next year.

The recently elected officers for next year are: President, Barry Haywood; and Vice-President, David Mehlenbacher.

Now that you are graduating, what are your plans for the future?

Sam Burnell, Bus., '56

Head "connaisseur" at Schraefers Brewery!!

Kaye Russell, Phy. Ed., '56

Raise a bigger and better family to help me put my husband through college!

John Mangini, Bus., '56

Find a rich girl and become the youngest retired man at the age of twenty-five.

Chip Feraco, Bus., '56

My future is pretty well numbered since I only have a couple of weeks left of bachelor life. After that I expect to become a millionaire.

Bob Ross, Phy. Ed., '56

Become President of the Bronx and make the rest of the state part of it.

Marvin Shapiro, Radio, '56

Just money.

Joan Silverman, Phy. Ed., '56

Marry a hot dog, have lots of kids, lots of money, and oh yes I'd better teach so I can afford that hot dog and the kids.

Matt Alessi, Phy. Ed., '56

I've been avoiding this question for a long time, but the time has run out on me. My plan for an ideal future is to get married and have enough kids to coach my own football star.

Robert Giniiecki Receives National Newman Award

Membership to the John Henry Newman Honorary Society, the highest National Newman Award, was bestowed on Robert Giniiecki, a Business Management Major at Ithaca College. He is the past treasurer of the Empire State Province of National Newman Club Federation, and also, he served as the assistant-editor of the Empire State Express, a Province paper, the chairman of the Province Alumni Formation Committee and was president of the Albany Business College Newman Club.

The award was announced and a key, symbolic of membership in the Society, was presented at the Province Convention held at Cornell University, April 13, 14, and 15.

Other recipients were Robert Constable of Hobart College, Thomas Stallmer of Oneonta State Teachers, Kenneth Kannis of Cornell University, and Marjorie Hickey of Buffalo State Teachers.

The Society was formed in 1938 to "band together those people who have been prominent in the furtherance of Newman Club work." Membership is conferred on those who have evidenced these qualifications: 1) have promoted the welfare of the local Club, the province, and the name of their patron, John Henry Cardinal Newman.

Ben Patrizi Named Editor of '57 Cayugan

Ben Patrizi has been selected to succeed Jerry Rachmiel as Editor-in-Chief of next year's Cayugan. He hails from Newark, New York and is a Junior majoring in Mathematics in the Liberal Arts Department.

Ben's program for next year's Cayugan is now well under way; however, he would appreciate any volunteers to work on his staff. If any students are interested, application blanks are available in the annex on the bulletin board.

Omnibus,

... honest, maggie, i was never a radical before. i've always tried to reason things out, but you get beat over the head long enough and your arches start to give out . . . cora, things are always improving, even if they are slow. remember, it takes the sea a million years to grind a rock to sand. what do you mean you don't plan to live over seventy or eighty years? . . . gerty, when i came here i had sixteen pairs of earrings. i have two pair now. do you know anything about them? . . . gee, lulu, i don't mind there not being locks on the doors, but i wish we had doors! . . . why, millie, he was holding my hand as we were coming to the steps. she said it was "lewd, unladylike, vulgar behavior." holy cow! i am engaged to the guy. can't i hold his hand? . . . no kidding, we were sitting on the porch polishing our fingernails on a blistering, hot afternoon. she ran out and said, "i won't have my girls using red light tactics. lounging is forbidden." i know the darkest hour is only sixty minutes long. but what do you do when every hour is dark and they all have sixty-five minutes? . . . i've learned a secret, lili. when in doubt, don't answer back; go down in the cellar and sing the "star spangled banner." . . . annie, there were mice in the house again last night. we sure have progressed, there's a bat in the bathroom now. zoo parade's broadcasting from here next week . . . i heard it yesterday, petunia, and i still can't believe it! i swear to God if they take away privileges for overdue library books, i'll quit; i swear to God! . . . honest, cornelia, is that all you can do, complain? you have to look over on the other side of the fence (even if there is a thousand foot drop on the other side) . . . hey, midge, have you heard the new record, "heartbreak hotel?" listen to it and remember what you learned in allegory . . . i know, rhonda, she's a sweet, wonderful, understanding minority member . . . linda's up in her room crying again. no, she sneezed and they charged her with disturbing the peace and destroying property . . . please tell me, zenobia, is there anything we can do? please, please . . .

"oooooooh, say can you see by the dawn's early light . . ."

so with tear in eye and head dropped low, we slowly drift to our summer palaces, anxiously awaiting the colored leaves of autumn, as the sun sets on beautiful cayuga. etc. etc. etc.

Delta Nu Omega Holds Business Banquet; Mr. Chen Speaks on Growth of Business Dept.

The Delta Nu Omega Business Fraternity held the first of a series of business banquets on May 16 at the Lehigh Valley House. Mr. Gordon Chen, business faculty member, was the guest speaker. Mr. Chen spoke on the growth of the Business Department of Ithaca College and the need for strong brotherhood organizations. He also compared American college with life with that of China.

College Announces Faculty Appointments

There will be several new members on the faculty in September. In the School of Health and Physical Education Mrs. Antoinette Patten will be Instructor in Physical Education. In the General College, Mr. Hal C. Yingling will be Associate Professor of Biology, Mr. Robert B. Revere will be Instructor in History, and Dr. Robert A. Ryan will be Assistant Professor of History. There are no new members to the School of Music faculty. Mr. Forrest Sanders will return from a leave of absence to resume instruction of 'cello and string bass.

Dr. Dillingham Named President

and experience are excellent. His familiarity with Ithaca College and its problems will be an invaluable aid to him in undertaking his work in this administrative position. That it will constitute a great asset to the College cannot be disputed. Dr. Dillingham's competence and integrity are factors upon which all those who are interested in Ithaca College can continue to base their unqualified support."

Dr. Dillingham will be president of a college with an undergraduate student enrollment of 1,226 and granting degrees in liberal arts, music, radio-television, drama, speech, physiotherapy, physical education, business management, and accounting. It also grants master degrees in some of these fields.

Because satisfactory scholarship is perhaps the primary requisite of collegiate training, the Delta Nu Omega Fraternity, as a professional business fraternity, aims to emphasize the value and necessity of conducting professional and educational programs in addition to the regular undergraduate scholastic work. Included in this program shall be addresses by men prominent in the business field, research projects, open forums, discussion meetings, debates, field trips, educational motion pictures, and social events.

Beginning with the 1956 Fall Semester, Delta Nu Omega shall present an award to the outstanding student in the Business Department; this award shall be presented each semester. Any student in the department shall be eligible; the selection of the student shall be made by the business faculty.

Delta Kappa Wins Float Parade
 Delta Kappa Fraternity enjoyed one of the better week-ends of its history. Two of the highlights that made the week-end so successful were having Al Levine chosen as the Prince at the coronation, and winning the float parade with a Teddy Bear Festival theme. As an added attraction, one of the members dressed as a Teddy Bear and wandered through the crowds amusing all the younger spectators.

The secret—they're SYNCHRO-DYNED!

They're called the sweetest playing clubs in the book, and for good reason. Spalding's exclusive SYNCHRO-DYNED® club process, a scientifically exact system of weight coordination, gives each club in the set the identical swing and "contact feel" to help groove your swing.

And this new Bobby Jones set is as handsome as they come. The irons feature an exclusive tough alloy steel with a glistening high-polish finish that lasts season after season.

If you're interested in whittling strokes off your game (and who isn't?) see and swing the 1956 Bobby Jones SYNCHRO-DYNED clubs at your Spalding dealer's.

Bombers Trounce Scranton; Score 14 Runs in Seventh Inning

Before a packed junior weekend throng, the I.C. Bombers couldn't muster any punch and trailed Scranton U. 3-1 for the first six innings. But in the home half of the seventh, 18 men paraded to the plate and 14 of them completed the round trip successfully.

Bob Thwaites who relieved Rich Slomkowski in the fourth, picked up his fourth win. Thwaites and Don Kern, who pitched the last two innings, held Scranton scoreless. George Freeman started on the hill for the Bombers and was nicked for one run in his two inning stint.

The Bombers gave the crowd many anxious moments as they continually would lift loft popups and routine groundouts. However, in the seventh the roof fell in, as a combination of walks, 11 Bomber hits, and errors produced 14 tallies. Al Levine collected two safe blows in this big rally. Other big hits included a clutch bases loaded single by Don Huszar and doubles by John Mangini and Bill McFarlane. Shortstop Andy Scerbo continued his sensational fielding in addition to banging two solid hits. All of the Bombers were instrumental, however, in hanging up victory number 13 against four setbacks.

As this issue was going to press, the Bombers had four games remaining. A return game with Mansfield, two games with Quantico, and a big important finale with Seton Hall remain. Then the process of selecting teams for the District 2 tournament of the NCAA will occupy I.C. attention. While the picture is still considerably jumbled, the situation should be clarified by results of recent key games.

I.C. Tops Upsala 4-3; Thwaites Winner

The I.C. Bombers pushed over the winning tally in the bottom of the 10th inning to down a strong Upsala nine, 4-3 for their ninth straight triumph. Righthander Bob Thwaites, although hit hard for twelve safeties, held the Vikings scoreless after the third inning to pick up his third win of the campaign.

The Viking started fast, clipping Thwaites for two runs in the first inning and one in the third. The

Annual Institute on Physical Medicine Held

The annual Institute on Physical Medicine was held on Saturday, May 5, at the Ithaca Reconstruction Home from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Talks were given and actual cases seen in regard to cerebral vascular accident, cervical fracture and dislocation, poliomyelitis, leg paretic, fracture — psuedoarthrosis, arthritis and hip dislocation leg amputee.

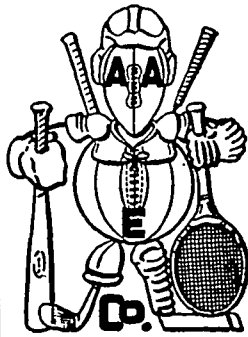

The annual dinner of the fraternity was held at the Lehigh Valley Restaurant. James O. Hoyle of the State Department of Education, Albany, and Dr. Jack Applebaum of Flushing, executive officer of the New York State Society of Physiotherapists, spoke.

The new members received were: Wilma Boddie, Frank Brognano, Judy Carney, Joe Guillari, Sandra Hanley, Sharon Harris, Barbara Heller, Douglas Kent, George Lambrou, Carol Lanz, Melinda Link, Linda Lovett, Barbara Luce, Robert Martorana, Edward Myles, Eleanor Pellegrino, Joseph Petrillo, Rae Smith, Valerie Smith, Arlene Snopek, Gerald Spilky, Lesley Steen, Lois Tackabury, and Ken Woodward.

Bombers, aided by Upsala errors, pushed over three runs in the bottom of the fourth to knot the score at 3-3. From that point, Upsala's Pollack matched Thwaites pitch for pitch until the 10th. Bill Freeman led off with a walk. Ken Lenhoff, attempting to sacrifice, bunted. The throw was wild and Freeman raced to third. Thwaites attempted to squeeze the run in, but Freeman held third and when Pollack fell in fielding the bunt, the sacks were loaded with no outs. Pollack, bearing down, got Teeter to ground to the second sacker who forced Freeman at the plate. Bill Schnellbacker was sent up to hit for Don Huszar, and on the first pitch was hit by an inside pitch to force across the winning run.

Upsala had been one of several teams mentioned in the battle for District 2 representation to the College World Series for this year. I. C. is also in the running, along with Colgate, last year's District 2 playoff winner, Penn State, Seton Hall, Fordham, Villanova, Lafayette, and Princeton.
