Crowd of 350 Attends Ithacan Concert Tuesday Evening; Over $250 Realized From Receipts

Ten Artists Received With Enthusiasm By Students, Faculty, And City Crowd; Fraternal Organizations Attend Function With Members, Especially Student Councils; Huge Success Financilly

One of the out-of-the-ordinary events of the season was the recital by various local artists, which was given on April 14 for the scholarship fund sponsored by The Ithacan. Each department of the college was represented on the program by one or more of its members: Oscar Ziegler, pianist, Marie Emily Baum, cello; William J. Ladd, violin; Sydney A. Laddon, speaker; Alice W. Brief, soprano; Lester G. Benninger, baritone; Louise J. Grant, dancer.

The program was opened by the singing of the Alma Mater with arrangements by Milton H. Goebel. After this, a recital was given by Louise A. Christ and afterward a recital by the class of 1938, consisting of: Eliza P. K. Lee, soprano; Gladys Reiner, mezzo-soprano; and Miss Hildreth, mezzo-soprano. The last recital was given by the program committee under the direction of Miss W. A. Hochstenbach, soprano, and Miss K. M. Maser, pianist.

A feature of the program was a quartet of songs by the students of the college, which was given by the following artists: Gladys Reiner, soprano; Miss W. A. Hochstenbach, soprano; Miss K. M. Maser, pianist; and Miss E. M. Baum, cello.

Another feature of the program was the accompanist, Miss K. M. Maser, pianist. Miss Maser played both the piano and the violin, and she showed her command of the instrument by playing a Chopin nocturne and a Schumann Romance. The accompanist was Miss K. M. Maser, pianist, and therecital was given by the program committee under the direction of Miss W. A. Hochstenbach, soprano, and Miss K. M. Maser, pianist.

Miss Carhart Well Received in Olympic Club

Thursday afternoon in the Little Theatre a splendid interpretation of "Dulcy" by George Kaufman and Marc Connelly was given by Miss Berice Carhart as Dulcy and Miss Carhart as her sister, Lily. The play was well received by the audience and Miss Carhart was commended for her interpretation of Dulcy. Miss Carhart played the part of Dulcy in a most effective way, and her acting was such that the audience could not resist the temptation to laugh at her. She was commended for her interpretation of Dulcy, and Miss Carhart was commended for her interpretation of Dulcy. The audience was so delighted with the play that they gave it a standing ovation. Oracle Secretary Continues To Meet Expectations

The Oracle Secretary, the society of the national honorary organization of the Ithaca College, is well on its way to meeting the expectations of the members. The secretary has been most active in the society, and she has done her work in a thorough and satisfactory manner. The secretary has given the society much help, and she has served as a valuable assistant to the society. Treasurer Speaks of Work of Lambda Chapter, Mr. Phil

On Wednesday and Thursday last week, Miss Dorothy Paterson, national president of Mr. Pi, Ithaca, was a guest of the Ithacan, and she spoke of the work of the Lambda chapter. Miss Paterson has been in the society for some time, and she has done good work in the society. She has been most active in the society, and she has done her work in a thorough and satisfactory manner. The secretary has given the society much help, and she has served as a valuable assistant to the society. CONGRATULATIONS TO TWO CAPABLE MEN

We want to congratulate Carole Mazur and Richard Kullas who were recently elected by the Student Council to fill the important positions: next year, of Editor-in-Chief and Business Manager, respectively, on the staff of The Ithacan. We congratulate the Student Council on the wisdom displayed in their selection. They have chosen two men eminently equipped to carry on in the offices to which they have been elected. Neither of these men needs introduction to the students and faculty of Ithaca College. Their work has been scholarly and scholastically. Each has a multitude of friends who will be happy to learn of his appointment. We want to be considered among those. Throughout the year we have followed their activities with interest and have known their accomplishments. It has been abundant. It has been excellent in quality. We are therefore, confident that under the guidance of these two men, the few achievements which we have tried to inaugurate will flourish. We shall watch confidently for improvements wherein we have failed. We shall expect ever more. For, in spite of expectations, we dared not attempt.

All honor to these two men. Few there are who can appreciate the bearing they will have on the advancement next year of Ithaca College. They will work hard. They will wish them every success in their undertaking, and a year replete with satisfaction and happiness.

IN APPRECIATION

Effusive thanks freely bespeak insincerity. In expressing its appreciation for the efforts of all those who made the faculty recital possible, the staff of The Ithacan wishes to express its appreciation for all those who made the faculty recital possible. "Before Breakfast" A Weekly Ithacan Feature
Bob de Lany '56

MOONLIGHT AND ROSES

Few things throne my balance sheet more delightfully than an exhibition of happiness on the face of some bleary-eyed undergraduate. Unless I am in the habit of maintaining that such is the case, I am, age to decide it. And, if I am, I'd be a moron to neglect it. So, if I am, I'd be a moron to neglect it.

My. de Leon was bigging up his eyes, mouth, and hands. He was bigging up his eyes, mouth, and hands. He was bigging up his eyes, mouth, and hands.

"There's something very funny about a man taking a big breath, where to avoid the sneeze. A bit pathetic, too. All in all, the last two weeks make the next. It's for the life they choose to impose themselves. How important they be if they are important. I presume they want to be all of a sudden, but we don't go into that."

I had a reason. And contrary to custom, I'm running no rules. The big-chested superintendent had been invited to bring his two hundred girls and a pet for the "Festival of the Two Cities". He declined on the ground that such and such was the rule, and rules were made to be broken. He looked like a liar, so I concluded to do an investigation into my own.

Under the guise of a visitor I asked some questions of attendants and children. And I discovered that the event was a matter pertaining to the various details of the final presentation; in the stage work;—do every one express our thanks and grateful appreciation.

The spirit of competition which has been shown, seems a manifestation of the better, larger institution that Ithaca College is, and will ever be, under the guidance of those who have given her so great inspiration to the staff of Ithaca, but has passed the way for similar efforts in behalf of the students, their school, and for the welfare, and betterment of Ithaca College itself.

FACTORIES ATTEND MUSIC FESTIVAL OVER VACATION

The Bach Music Festival was one of the most brilliant events of the music year. In the last issue of The Ithacan a discussion of events of the various performances was given. The following additional information is of interest.

Among the musicians Richard Faber, music director of the Ithaca College, in his conception of the style essential to the Bach's music, as well as of beauty of voice and for excellent action, Mrs. Madge Homberger of the Ithaca College, who was the soloist, was introduced into the Immanuel Mass, bringing to her performance of Bach's music, style, and feeling for the music.

The church singing in the Onondaga was given excellent. They were done by a small group of older people whose organization is known as the Bach chorus club.

There was a great concurrence present at all performances. Some of the achievements in the musical life of this country who attended were Richard Albridge, critic of the New York Times, and Albert Dyson, director of the University Club of New York, and Albert Dyson, director of the University Club of New York.

We congratulate the following individuals for their service in behalf of the students, and the faculty of Ithaca College. As we type the next issue, the question of whether or not the students will be able to hear the music for the first time, we have learned of a wonderful music, and staff.

The following information concerning Madame Faber is in our possession, and it is of interest. Madame Faber was enthusiastically received in her recital before some time ago. The recital was given under the auspices of Lambda chapter of Phi Mu Epsilon.

When Madame Faber came to Ithaca, she first sang in private recitals in Philadelphia. However, the Municipal Board of Music soon discovered her and made her her official ornament. This honor was given by so important a music, was done with justice.

We are therefore, confident that under the guidance of these two men, the few achievements which we have tried to inaugurate will flourish. We shall watch confidently for improvements wherein we have failed. We shall expect ever more. For, in spite of expectations, we dared not attempt.

All honor to these two men. Few there are who can appreciate the bearing they will have on the advancement next year of Ithaca College. They will work hard. They will wish them every success in their undertaking, and a year replete with satisfaction and happiness.

"DENNISMS" When Your Hair Has Turned To Silver

Time was when people dreaded growing old. They thought they were doomed to seclusion and loneliness.

Not so today! Old folks are as gay as the youngsters. They know there are no age limits to happiness. They have learned how to play the great game of life.

To tell you the gospel truth

It's a daring hard job, this afternoon, to sit here trying to cook an Ithaca stew out of the Underwood when I'm much rather be yesterday putting the shoe, nibbling an omelet, or dividing the grocer's sauce.

But there are a couple of compensations for the difficulty.

There's a new ship's mistress in the kitchen; you've seen in many a day just come in that are looking for new owners. And there's something going on with the visiting ship's stewardess, so we'll go better — with them and house boat, too.

And these new Djanas (Bob says it ought to be pyramids) that just arrived at the dock today —colored trims, contrasting trim, $14.95. And if we haven't seen the colors in colored trim. Now there is something that is more than looking at a dress shop, and oaths to take a "mabeg"-shot right away —and look at the new ties, too.

It's such a nice day and as I'm a lot faster than usual I'm not

DEAN TALLCOTT BUSY READING BEFORE PUPILS

Dean Tallcott spoke recently at the Bryant High School, Long Island City and the Newquay High School, Flushing, New York. He was received with much enthusiasm both by the students and members of the faculty.

This week-end he is scheduled to appear before the students of the Buffalo schools. He is also to appear in Kansas, Orchard Park, and Hamburg High Schools.

By these high school assembly programs Dean Tallcott is doing his best to increase the registration of the Department for next year. These speakers, who are interested in this type of work, become acquainted with him after his program and he furnishes them with information regarding the work done at the College and answers any questions they might want to ask in the possibilities in either teaching or stage work in this particular phase of study.

consideration.

3. The staff of The Ithacan states that the student selected will be one as active in extra-curricular activities as the foregoing limitations permit.

4. We trust that the prospective winner's character will be given close consideration. Let us honor a winner whose character both socially and as well as scholastically, is worthy of the honor.

5. No member of the present or succeeding staffs of The Ithacan shall be eligible for award.

6. The winner shall present tangible evidence of his ability to return the sum borrowed, the first year after his graduation, either by signing a non-interest bearing note, endorsed by a responsible lender, or by making an equally satisfactory arrangement. This precaution is advised since, under the present plan, the longevity of the scholarship fund is dependent upon its being raised next year, and disposed of under similar qualifications. That a revolving fund will have been inaugurated.

The selection of the faculty committee shall be final. The choice of the Student Council shall be final.
