"Pillars Of Society" To Be Presented
On May 25 and 26th

The last play of the current season of the Ithaca College Players will take place on Wednesday and Thursday, May 25th and 26th. It will be the long awaited and much awaited "Pillars of Society" by Henrik Ibsen.

The play has been in rehearsal for about two weeks and should be considered as being more than an experiment. It is under the direction of Dr. Russel D. Farlow, a French student, and Dorothea Stimson, a French student.

The cast is composed of Junior and Senior students, the leading roles in the double cast being played by Alfred Luis and William D.

Concert Band
Again Thrills Theatre Audience

On April 24th the concert band gave another of its well known and entertaining concerts to a large and appreciative audience. The college band is comparable to any concert band heard on the larger radio networks and in concert halls, so it is regretful not to have the pleasure of extending it's capabilities to full performance. People from the country side flock to New York to visit the concert halls that are well known, but the local people have never even heard of it. An admission fee to these concert halls would stimulate the music to a much greater extent. It is regretful not to have the pleasure of extending it's capabilities to full performance.

A few stately chords introducing the two themes of the Overture to "Hamlet" and "The Messiah" by Handel. The coloraturas of Willard Dorfman, and John Smalley, as the two themes of the Overture to "Hamlet", and "The Messiah" by Handel.

The "Ithaca" board for the year 1939-40, will be selected on next week Wednesday.

FINEST OF YEARS PRESENTATIONS

The freshman drama students who have enjoyed a successful season presenting their one-act in productions, gave an excellent production of Oscar Wilde's three-act comedy, "An Ideal Husband," on April 27th, 1939. The first venture in the field of three

- The play was produced in the college auditorium. It was presented by the students of the college and the local community. The play was a success, and was enjoyed by all who attended. The students worked hard to put on a great performance, and it was a great success.

THIN SEAS

Tien spring—\n\n... the season when all young men turn their faces to sun, daffodils, cock-eyed tulips, and spirits. A beautiful time of year. The older students of the fine arts college we found tacked away in some far-off corner... with their arts... everything seemed to happen in a blur. Some composing, some running around a track getting themselves acquainted... there were no bored writers about... you can imagine. We happened to pick up a copy of The Barroom Floor. We ask you to read on. It may have a stupid... maybe not... regardless, your eyes wandered to the bigger and better poetry... so we informed.

FRATERNITIES

SIGMA DELTA PSI

Sigma Delta Psi wound up the pledge proceedings March 16th with a formal banquet at the Victoria Hotel. Under the able influence of Ben Light, who acted as toastmaster, the banquet moved along smoothly. Among the guests present was Lawrence Hill, who acted in the capacity of main speaker, Bucky Freeman, Isadore Yavitt, Ed Sawyer, and Walt O'Connell.

At the banquet the following pledges were formally accepted by the fraternity: Columbia, Robert Aiken, James Nethic, Everett Stark, Joseph Quarran, Ted L Letter, Al Dow, Frank Rudolph, Ace Mand, Bernard Greif, Michael Lucarelli, John Haley, Robert Farbrel.

The new house has been decided upon and negotiations are being made to acquire the spacious old house at 804 W. Seneca St. This house will be the site of the dinner dances and speakers will be provided for. The proceeds provided a delightful evening's entertainment for the members last Monday night. After having endured the trying ordeal most of the pledges were found to be of the more rugged type, for upon close examination, it was found that all subjects had come through in fine style.

INQUIRY

Where will you put the dead, boys? Have you made a dicker with God? To fill the long shelves of Eternity? Don't you think that maybe he's a bit overstocked by now? I just thought I'd ask, I'd like to know.

Where will you put the tears, boys? Have you bravedly invented a new kind of leak-proof bucket that will hold them all, or do you expect to pour them out on the already tear-stained, tear-saturated earth? You don't mind my asking, do you? I just thought I'd like to know.

Yes, I know your corpuses will be college-wrapped and processed by Dupont, but I'd like to ask you to have the kindness to remember...

PHI EPSILON KAPPA

Spring is in the air and once more that means Phi E. K. week-end. Like everything else it's bigger and better than ever. Never let it be said that a recession could stop the school's social life. Bands have been contracted, Ted Howe's and "Doc" Small. The Ithaca Hotel will be the site of the dinner dances and speakers have been provided for. The proceeds provided a delightful evening's entertainment for the members last Monday night. After having endured the trying ordeal most of the pledges were found to be of the more rugged type, for upon close examination, it was found that all subjects had come through in fine style.

That your corpuses will be our bodies. So maybe you will pardon my curiosity.

THETA ALPHA PHI SPONSORING DANCE TONIGHT

 Theta Alpha Phi will play host this evening, conducting their annual Little Theatre Tournament dance. The dance will be informal and is open to all guests of the tournament and their friends. There is a small admission charge; fifty cents for each couple and twenty-five cents for stag. It is hoped that all will attend and help make the affair the glorious success that it has always been in the past. Dancing will be enjoyed from 9:30 until 12:00. It is hoped that tournament guests will avail themselves of the opportunities offered by the dating bureau established in the green room for that purpose.

The fraternity is also conducting a refreshment booth in the Green Room during the three days of the contest.

RECORDINGS MAY BE MADE ON NEW MACHINE

The Department of English and Drama announces that several fine recordings have been made of the opera, "Robin Hood," on the new machine. Many of the students have had the privilege of listening to these records, and it is to the credit of the college to be able to possess such fine records of the work that is accomplished within the walls and halls. More students should take advantage of the facilities that are offered in this field.

Music students are privileged to make personal records, the cost being small, the price of the disc, and Delta students can make recordings of their voices, presenting readings, etc.

SIGMA DELTA PHI NEWS

President Beggin informs your scribe that he has received correspondence from our Yale and Stanford chapters regarding our plans for a "Spring Demonstration" and giving us their plans for their demonstrations. We have decided that as part of our Alumni weekend we shall give a demonstration of the ultra modern game of six man football. This program will be carried on under the supervision of our senior members at Percy Field. The exact date will be given out at a later time, and it is my belief that all who attend will enjoy and educate themselves to no small degree.
