JUST WHAT DO YOU WANT

Some persons have very hazy and indefinite ideas concerning just what they want. Their wants are too indefinite, general, and hazy to create that strong idealization, that definite visualization, which is the first requisite. If you ask them just what they want most in the world, you will find that they do not know, or at least cannot tell you with certainty. One moment they think they want this thing, and the next moment another thing. Even when they think they have arrived at a final decision, they usually will have but the most general ideas concerning it. You cannot get them pinned down to a clear-cut, definite, certain idea. You cannot get them down "to brass-tacks," as the current phrase expresses it.

Few persons know what it is to pursue an idea or ideal with persistent determination. They have no blueprint of life as they would have it. They do not know what it is to have a purpose firmly fixed in mind, insistently desired, confidently expected, and then persistently followed with indomitable determination and resolution to the end.

An individual may have anything he wants provided always (1) that he knows exactly what he wants; (2) that he wants it hard enough; (3) that he confidently expects to obtain it; (4) that he persistently determines to obtain it; and (5) that he is willing to pay the price of its attainment.

Most of us believe in the power of affirmative thinking; how many of us realize the force of negation? "Oh, I couldn't do that," you say. How do you know? Have you ever tried? Paste this thought in your hat, that it may lie as close to your seat of consciousness as possible: The Faith in failure, inspired by Fear, is equal in force and power, in result and effect, to that Faith in success which is inspired by Hope and confident expectation of the actualization of that which has been idealized, or visualized. In other words, the idealization accompanying Fear is as effective as is the idealization arising from Hope, provided that the degree of Faith or confident expectation be the same in each case. Most of us can say, and truthfully so, with Job: "The thing I feared hath come upon me."

But if you do not know what you want you can have no confident expectation of actualization; you have idealized no life-plan; Hope has no visualized objective.

The first and best co-educational institution was the school of experience.

RECENT FACULTY ACTION REGARDING SCHOLARSHIP INSTRUCTION

Beginning with the school year 1929-30, scholarships shall be known as Master Scholarships, First, Second, Third, and Fourth Scholarships. MASTER SCHOLARSHIPS shall, as heretofore, include free Board, Room and all of Private and Class instruction of any course leading to a Degree.

FIRST SCHOLARSHIPS shall grant free class instruction for any course leading to a degree, but no private instruction is included.

SECOND SCHOLARSHIPS shall grant all of the class instruction included in any course leading to a degree at one-half the regular charge. No private instruction is included in this scholarship.

THIRD AND FOURTH SCHOLARSHIPS grants the holder all of the class instruction included in any course leading to a degree with the privilege of paying for the same as follows:—One-half of the class tuition must be paid in cash at time of registration and one-half may be paid by note due three years after the student completes his course of instruction or for any reason leaves the school. However, those students holding scholarships during the school year 1929-30 through renewals from the preceding school year shall receive the same scholarship benefits as to both private and class instruction which prevailed during the school year 1928-29. It is definitely stipulated that this privilege shall be granted for one year only.

SCHOLARSHIP RENEWALS

Beginning with the school year 1929-30, no student shall be eligible to scholarship appointment or to enter the scholarship examination unless he be a graduate of an accredited high school. Likewise all scholarship students, in order to secure or retain scholarship privileges will be obliged to take a prescribed course of instruction leading to a degree.

Those students now holding scholarships but not graduates of an accredited high school, and consequently not eligible to take a regular course leading to a degree, are necessarily taking an abbreviated course of instruction averaging 10 credits less than a degree course. This gives such students an unfair advantage when competing for renewal of scholarship through an average term marks. Therefore, beginning with the present term in the consideration of average term marks for scholarship renewals, all scholarship students not taking the regular course leading to a degree will be obliged to maintain an average term mark ten credits higher than other scholarship students.

As illustration:—a scholarship student taking a regular course of instruction leading to a degree, receiving an average term mark 87, will be credited with an average mark only 77 in competition with other scholarship students for scholarship renewal. This reduction of term marks pertains only to the matter of scholarship renewals.

Friday and Saturday Evenings at 8:15. Matinee Saturday at 2:30.

Music by Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy played by forty students from the Conservatory Orchestra under the direction of Adolph Pick

MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

Shakespeare's Midsummer Night's Dream, a delightful fantasy, will be given Thursday and Friday, January 25th and 26th. The play is being coached by Dean Tallcott, Mr. Williams, and Mr. Sisson, with the fairy dances under the direction of Miss Hugger. Accompanying this is a forty-piece orchestra conducted by Mr. Adolf Pick, presenting the famous Mendelssohn Midsummer Night's Dream music. The settings and costumes are elaborate, and it will be the most spectacular play presented by the school this year.

Everyone will be interested to know that Mr. Williams will play the part of Bottom, the weaver, and will be eager to see him in this amusing role. The rest of the cast, comprising the best talent of the school, follows:

LITTLE THEATRE

Concert by the Conservatory Orchestra

Direction of Adolph Pick

Soloist—Mary Aldrich, soprano

Program

- I. Meditation on the old Bohemian Choral "Svaty Vaclave" for String Orchestra ..... Jos. Suk
 II. Recitative and Aria from "Le Nozze di Eigar" ..... W. A. Mozart
 "E Susanna non vien—Dove sono"
 III. Vltava, Symphonic Poem...
 ..... Bedrich Smetana

Two springs are in the shade of the Bohemian Forest: one is warm and effervescent, the other cool and quiet. The joyous waters as they rush through the rock, unite and sparkle in the rays of the morning sun. The hurrying brook flows quickly in the Vltava River which continues to flow through the Bohemian provinces, until it grows into a mighty stream. It flows through the thick forests in which the joyous stir of the chase is heard and the echoes of the hunters horn. It runs through rich meadows and valleys where amidst the joyous sounds of the songs and dance a wedding is being celebrated. By moonlight the forest and water nymphs make merry on the sparkling waves in which are mirrored the many castles and strongholds to remind one of the former splendor of Knighthood and of past ages of the vanished glory of war.

In the St. John rapids roars the river and winds through the cataract until its foaming waves beat with force through the rocky fissure to the bed of the stream. Herein, with majestic stillness, it for the week beginning January 17

CALENDAR

Thursday 8:15 P. M.

There will be no expression recital held in the Little Theatre. This has been cancelled until a later date.

Friday

Perhaps you will deserve Friday and Saturday as days of rest as well as Sunday. Anyway, we hope all of you survived last week, and can stand it again in June.

Sunday 3:30 P. M.

There will be a concert given by the Band in the Little Theatre. This will be the first feature of Mid-week. Mr. Conway is director, and his name alone will warrant a large attendance.

Tuesday 8:15 P. M.

An Orchestra Concert, directed by Mr. Pick, will be given in the Little Theatre, at this time. This will be the first time the Orchestra has appeared under the new conductor, and we are proud to introduce him during Mid-week.

Thursday 8:15 P. M.

An exhibition will be given in the Gymnasium, by the students of the School of Physical Education. Considering the Phi Deltas work in the Student Scampers, it will be worthwhile to go.

Friday 8:15 P. M.

"A Midsummer Night's Dream" will be presented by the Williams School of Expression, on Friday and Saturday nights, and Saturday afternoon. Mr. Williams heads the low comedy group in this play.

AMARDS

Congratulations to the Phi Mu Alpha Fraternity for the clever act which won the cup in the Six Student Scampers!. The Scampers was a big success and should be given annually as a regular school affair. There was plenty of evidence of pep, originality and co-operation shown. The show was a hit, not only for the students but for the townspeople as well.

Most of the Amards are busy with rehearsals for Midsummer Night's Dream, which is to be given an elaborate presentation the last two days of Block Week, assisted by Adolph Pick and a forty-piece symphony orchestra presenting Mendelssohn's Midsummer Night's Dream music.

Between rehearsals and studying for exams, our time is about taken up; till next week, then, continues to flow towards Prague, welcomed by the ancient Royal Castle Wyschchrad, whence it vanishes in the distance before the eyes of the poet.

Intermission

- IV. Symphony VIII F major op.
 93 ..... L. van Beethoven
 Allegro vivace e con brio
 Allegretto Scherzando
 Tempo di Minuetto
 Allegro vivace

Dr. Martin's assemblies have been so delightful before that we look forward to this one with a great deal of pleasure.

CONSERVATORY NOTES

Don Dewhirst's activities were numerous during the holidays. While home he sang at the following places in Hamilton, Ohio: The Methodist Church, Jewish Synagogue, Rialto Theatre, and from the studio of the Radio Station WRK. He also entertained at two formal receptions, and broadcast from Station WHW in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Raymond Hall and Don Foxe, students of the Williams School, have obtained splendid positions for this year and are leaving the school today. Mr. Foxe goes in order to take a Federal position in this state. Mr. Hall will be in Pennsylvania, in the Real Estate business. They were both outstanding students, in an educational and social sense.

Mr. Lyon and Mr. Hathaway spent part of their Christmas vacation in New York City, where they enjoyed several various musical activities, including several Operas at the Metropolitan. During their stay in the city, they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ziegler.

Mary Linton gave a soprano solo in the First Presbyterian Church of York, Pa., during vacation.

Martha Stahlar also did a lot of solo work while at her home in Newcomerstown, Ohio.

Over the holidays, Mildred Alderfer gave a recital on a newly installed Moeller organ in the Lutheran Church of Souderton, Pa.

LESTER SISSON AND DON FOXE GIVE PROGRAM AT SPENCER

A. Lester Sisson and Don Foxe entertained the Bankers of Spencer, N. Y., at their annual meeting, held at the First Presbyterian Church there on Monday evening, January 7th. The program included miscellaneous readings and stunts of magic by Mr. Foxe. As always with these popular entertainers, they were well received.

MU PHI EPSILON

We sincerely congratulate Phi Mu Alpha, our brother fraternity, on winning the cup in the "Student Scampers."

We are proud to say that some of our sisters have been recognized in the professional field. Gene Peter was honored to be invited to be guest organist and accompanist of a choir of seventy-five voices in the oldest Luthern Church in New York, located in Albany, N. Y., and broadcast through WGY on Christmas morning.

Hester Foster presented a vocal program at the Century Club of Scranton, Pa., during the holidays.

Mary Louise Masten entertained at the County Home of Woodmere, L. I., as pianist and accompanist.

It is with regret mingled with gladness that we announce that Geraldine Bachman has recently accepted a position with a woman's orchestra of fifteen pieces which will play on Keith's Circuit. She will leave after examinations.

THE OUTSIDE GIRLS

The Ogo's have been invited to attend an afternoon tea and social hour at the home of Mrs. Lyon. The time will be announced later.

Mrs. Lyon has always taken such an interest in the Outside Girls, and has tried to make their social life one that will be a pleasant memory, after college days.

EGBERT HALL

Back again after a wonderful vacation! Despite the fact that there has been so much illness we "Phy Eds" came back in just the best of health.

Some of us made resolutions, and some of us realized we would not keep them, so did not make any.

At first we did not think Elizabeth Stein had returned, but finally she convinced us that she had. We just can not recognize her since she has become a shadow.

A big addition has been made to our dorm. "Betty" brought a hound back, a Russian wolf hound, we think—at least it was once, but she gave it a bath, and now it's only a poodle.

WILLIAMS HALL PERSONALS

Miriam Chaffee has returned from her home in Springfield, Mass., where she was ill with the flu.

Cecila Kiefer was not able to return to school until this Sunday as she was ill with the flu.

We are all sorry to have Mildred Ostrum leave us. She is planning to study Theater Organ in New York the second semester.

Barbara Witter spent a few days during Christmas vacation with Marion Beck in Bridgeport, Conn.

"Her niece is rather good-looking, eh?"

"Don't say 'knees is', say 'knees are'".

SIGMA ALPHA IOTA

Mrs. F. E. Bates of 210 N. Aurora St., a patroness of Epsilon Chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota and a member of Delta Delta Delta Sorority of Cornell University, entertained the local chapters of both these Sororities in her home last Saturday night.

Following the formal reception a musical program was given by Misses Charlotte Andrews, pianist, Margaret Daum-Nichols, soprano, Olga Rita Barina, violinist, Evelyn Johnson, soprano and Dorothy Hewitt, contralto. Accompanists were Miss Dorothy Wagner and Miss Grace Stillwell. Each of the performers are members of Sigma Alpha Iota.

For several years Mrs. Bates has entertained these two groups in her home some time during the school year, and each event is a delightful occasion for her guests. Last year the program was given by members of Delta Delta Delta Sorority.

First yegg—"Bill has an honest streak in him."

Second ditto—"What do you mean?"

First ditto—"He always rings up No Sale, when he opens a cash register during a hold-up."

Dorothy Hewitt accompanied by Carolyn Kock at the piano, will sing this evening at the W. C.T.U. banquet at the First Methodist Church.

The Orchestral Concert which will be given on Tuesday night, January 22nd is the one event during the Mid-year Festival Week at which attendance will be required of all students in the Music and Expression Departments. This attendance will be checked through the medium of numbered tickets which will be given to Recital Students. The regular Tuesday afternoon Recital will be omitted on that day. Although the concert will be one of the best events of the series, there will be no admission charge—Let us all cooperate in demonstrating our appreciation of Mr. Pick's fine work and the loyalty of his players by filling the Little Theatre on Tuesday night.
