Ithaca College Chorus and Solists Give Splendid Performance Sunday

LYONS IS DIRECTOR

Under the direction of Bert Lyons, the Ithaca College Chorus and Solists performed a delightful concert in the afternoon. The program was well received by the audience, and the choristers gave a splendid performance.

WINTER IZkeh's FAVORS OLYMPIC ATHLETES AT LAKE PLACID

(From The New York Times)

The little village of Lake Placid came into the limelight this week when it snow fell in the Valley of the Adirondacks, bringing joy to the hearts of 200 athletes participating in the Olympic Games.

The Games, sponsored by a group of sports enthusiasts, will be held from Saturday to Sunday.

SENIORS IN CHARGE

As the featured event of last Thursday afternoon's program, the band of Ithaca College appeared in its second concert, again under the direction of senior students.

The program included a variety of selections that showcased the musical talent of the students.

ROYAL MUNICIPAL THEATRE PRESENTS RUSSIAN SINGER

(From The New York Times)

Feodore Chaliapin, the famous Russian singer, is now known to music-loving Americans, appearing in Montreal in what is described as his greatest performance ever. With the Wagner Society, he had the opportunity to portray the Germanic Breyhounds of the Russian Opera, the Russian Ballet of Paris, and the Armenian Opera of Constantinople, Munich, Milan and the Cincinnati Opera, as the conductor.

Princess Juliana and members of the court, including, among others, the famous chorus of the Russian Opera, were present to pay tribute to the renowned singer.

THE COLLEGE MAN--A PERPLEXITY!

When the presidents of two of America's greatest universities submit to print opposing statements concerning college students, there must be something radically wrong with the present scheme of higher education.

The two prominent figures concerned are President LOWELL of Harvard whose views were published not long ago in the March issue following the Kansas City conference, and one man involved, President BUTLER of Columb ia. The for-melier is proud and high in his praise of the men at Harvard, while the latter lampoons his report with doubt, and even condemns the students who frequent COLUMBIA.

To some observers of the nation's intellect, the college
"saps" are in the best of environment and upon graduation will not be a loss of responsibility -- but just a push to REDWOOD MURRY BUTLER who insinuates and maintains that the college students of these days have bad manners, display careless-hness in habits and dress, and inconsiderateness in speech.

This educator finds that the men are more mature than the women. He feels that if you want to find a man, you are likely to get Chicago out of the red, it becomes necessary to call out the state militia, and of course you refuse President, thus necessitating the nomcination of "Alfalfa Bill" Murray
for Governor, who can get state satisfaction for his back behind the scenes. But since one of the re-quiments of his executive nature the State of Illinois is ten weeks
by the time he elects, take Michigan is dry and so it Hillville, thus eliminating the militia city, as a base to Canadian liquor and opening up field of endeavor. Even the liver from St. Paul. So they leap up to Minnesota and start a ren-booster. As if there were any

FRATERNITY NOTICES

Kappa Kappa Gamma

We're beginning to believe that most anything can happen once Ken Parish has become fascinated. The next thing you'll probably hear of is that Mike Sansone will be running a speak-easy for being so trite, but why not? vpn... You may find it in the lobby of Student Council.

Last Saturday afternoon the Psi Kappa basketball team defeated the Phi Mu Alpha five. It was a great game and a good time was had by all.

We now grasp the opportunity to make it public that we accept while daring us all the while to make it public that we accept and enthused over its goodness our Phi Mu Alpha's challenge to Phi Delta Pi. The boys are all lazy moments.

The performance of The Beasties last Sunday night was a distinct credit to director, conductor, and chorus. Worthwhile works serve to remind us of the worthy profession we have chosen for ourselves.

And now we're pouring over the books again — Main's applied once on one of his and it are the cover off. Thus, however, is the only accident of the week. And by the time this is printed the week will be over. Six days of finals, plus an extra day off for the weekend. Some Short Sale, 35¢-10¢.
