“Damn Deborah” Calmulates Work of Walter C. Roberts

“Damn Deborah”’s performance on May 30, and June 2, and 9, will bring to a close the work of Walter Charles Roberts, director of dramatic state university, deserves honorable mention in connection with his five years work in our endeavor to communicate the little theatre. Walter has been the leader of the Ithaca College Little Theatre for the past year, and has contributed most of the plays presented. He has been very much enjoyed by the students and guests, and has given much pleasure.

The production of “Damn Deborah” was during the Spring Semester of 1932, and was advertised as the first piece from Mr. Roberts’ theatre. It was not a success at first, but later it became a great hit.

Further, in view of the fact that “Damn Deborah” is concerned, biographically, with one of the most momentous periods in our country’s history, and is a true representation of what American historical drama should be, it is most fitting that it be reprinted in the final piece of Mr. Roberts’ work. It is the first performance of “Damn Deborah” in 1935, following. To say that Mr. Roberts will be missed is to say nothing. The cloak of the anarchist which these men knew him to be is amiss, and there are two men who relied upon him for honestly. It is, indeed, a person should be proud to call himself a friend.

And the Band Played On

With a mission橡胶 to Opus

Nassau is today -- the great culmination. The peak, for you to speak, the high aspiration. You’re not dead. Complete, and done to a turn.

Eulalid. (You’ve made it!)

Your cake and how they burn -- with prisions

Of phone

From four years of college (That’s what they call it) -- a place to get knowledge. The suffer all is boiling. Like most parents do

For years are ended. Think, Heaven. You’re through! And don’t be saying that foolish bull! If you get a job (Tinny, likely) you will

But nevertheless, you’re their great pride and joy. You’re mother’s own sweetheart and father’s own boy.

[But where now?] You’ve gone a remittance. No care now

Just joy now.

This is your graduation! You’re the perfect of the goal. The goal is in sight.

You’ve worked hard for days, and labored (7) at night.

You’re honored today (The pride of the town)

The name is marked -- You’ll never come down again

But wait! It’s tomorrow. And the thing is done.

You’re out of the class.

And now only one (Of thousands of other women)

You’re the woman and young and you knew you were there yesterday.

With B. S. Degree.

A friend of mine went fishing the other day ... and went ashore, same as others.

JOHN NELSON, CALLOWAY, TO PLAY AT BALL TONIGHT

Couples in the Drill Hall from 10:30 till midnight will dance upon the simulated deck of a huge ocean liner, to attend the first truly Naval Navy Day Ball in many years. The west door will be the entrance, and a gangplank, guarded by four stalwart bayonet sailors, will be the dancer's first glimpse of their cruiser for a night. Directly across the great spacious dance floor is to be a large compass design, on the wall in the glare of a powerful search light. A pair of stately crow's nests, each 20 feet high, are veritable center pieces, with a string of colored flags between them and each the raider of lights. Light has been arranged to provide the proper dance atmosphere and to exclude any glare from dancer's eyes. The orchestra of Cab Calloway and Oran.<n> Nelson will sit for hours in the two dance stands placed so that essential effects direct the music to the entire floor. A box for the patronesses will be directly under the varicolored compass which is on the east draped wall, and at both ends of this box are to be more tailor made gangplanks that will lead to the caterer's luncheon-rooms. Tickets are on sale at Brownings, Rings, Marx's Smoke Shop, The Coup, Wilder Straight, or may be purchased at the Ball.

One of life's most enjoyable experiences is the pleasure Camels add to eating

You have surely noticed how much more you enjoy eating when your mind is free from care. No mental strain or hurry slows down the natural flow of digestive fluids.

Much of this same enjoyment is yours when you smoke Camels. Smoking Camels increases the supply of alkaline digestive fluids... so necessary for zest while you eat and for digestive well-being afterward.

In Camels, you find tobacco at once rich, mild, and perfect in taste.
