PI THETA PHI ELECTS TELLNER PRESIDENT

In elections held last Wednesday, PI Theta Phi, Professional Physical Therapy Fraternity, elected Dick Tellner president, and Dick Odbrane vice president. Other officers elected were: Carol Eisenmann, recording secretary; Diana Kaba, corresponding secretary; Romaine Berlow, treasurer; and Bernie Leontz, pledge master.

The officers will assume their duties at the next scheduled business meeting.

OSWEGO-APPALACHIN CHOIR TO PRESENT CONCERT TODAY

The Oswego-Appalachin Central School Choir will present a concert today at 4:00 p.m. in the Music Hall.

The choir will be directed by Mr. John Davye, who is also presently working for his Masters degree at Ithaca College. This concert will form a part of the choir's spring tour.

The "Top Ten Seniors" of the 1961 graduating class of Ithaca College have been selected by a vote of the editors of THE ITHACAN.

These seniors are now the nominees for the Douglass Delta Memorial Award presented by Delta Kappa Fraternity to the "Senior of the Year".

The "Senior of the Year" will be announced at Moving Up Day ceremonies, May 11.

The "Top Ten Seniors" were selected on their "leadership qualities, extra-curricular activities and contributions to Ithaca College with departmental contributions taken into consideration.

The "Top Ten Seniors" are:

Fred Douglas, Frank Romano, Dan Healy, John Gero, Larry Holdridge, Jim Captain, Paul Mueller, Mary Arlin, Janine Pochlopek, and Bill Coleman.

Douglas is president of the student council, served as freshman counselor, and served on student council for three years. He is majoring in history.

Romano is a member of Delta Kappa Fraternity, past president of Inter-Fraternity Council, current editor-in-chief of the Cayugan, and has participated in the intramural programs at the college. He is a business major. Healy has held several class offices, served as managing editor of the Ithacan, is majoring in history.

Tellner is president of the student council, served as freshman counselor, and served on student council for three years. He is majoring in history.

Gero, also a History major, has served as advertising manager of the Ithacan, class vice-president, and Spring Weekend committee. He is managing editor of the Cayugan. Holdridge, a member of Phi Mu Alpha, has taken part in several music productions at the college. He was named to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities," and was the recipient of the Oracle Society's Scampers Award. Captain, a Speech major, is president of the Forensic Society and a member of its debating team. He served as production manager of "Vist and appeared in many Green Room productions. He hosts "Music For Moderns," a weekly TV and Radio show and has served on the Ithacan staff.

Mueller, a three-letter winner in varsity sports, is business manager of the Cayugan. He is a member of Delta Kappa Fraternity. Coleman served as president of Delta Kappa Fraternity, director of frosh camp, and hosted a weekly sports show on WICB television.

Miss Arlin served on Student Council for two years and is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota. She has been active in Women's Student Government and was named to "Who's Who." Miss Pochlopek, a member of Theta Alpha Phi, appeared in several major Drama Productions, served on Student Council for three years, and produced and directed several TV and radio productions.

Twelve students were elected class representatives to Student Council in an election held last week in the Annex.

Next year's senior class Council members are: Lorraine Behrens, Music; Joe Totten, Physio-Phys. Ed.; Carol Garamone, Lib. Arts; and Nan Adler, TV-Speech-Drama.

New Junior class members are: Margaret Stambach, Music; Thomas Baker, Physio-Phys. Ed.; Lawrence Sargent, Lib. Arts; and Richard Bales, TV-Speech-Drama.

Next year's sophomore representatives are: Elson Wegman, Music; Forn Miller, Physio-Phys. Ed.; Gary Klein, Lib. Arts; and Ruth Getcher, TV-Speech-Drama.

Next year's freshman class will elect representatives immediately after frosh officers have been elected early in the Fall semester. These students, along with the new representatives from Women's Student Government and Men's Student Government, will complete Council's increased number of members.

Of the twelve elected last week, only three have served previously on Student Council.

Editorial

The Student Council, by vote, has decided to post election results and the number of vote each candidate receives. The Ithacan feels that this practice is not going to help increase the already-diminishing number of interested office seekers. The poor candidate who takes a long shot at office, and is resoundingly voted off, may well resign himself to the fact that Ithaca will never want to run again even though she has been beaten badly. The present vote-posting probably will scare her off.

Week of April 24-28

TUE., Apr. 24

CONTROVERSY — the question, "What Are We Teaching Our Students?" is discussed by Mr. Ewell Beagis, Associate Director of the Cornell University Religious Work; Prof. Rose Goldsen of Cornell; and a panel of college students.

WED., Apr. 25

IN THE GARDEN — demonstrations, instructions and discussions on seasonal inside and outside garden projects for city and country.

THOROUGHLY MODERN MILLIE — starring Barbara Miller, storyteller, and Doctor William Miller, MD. Notice: for the next few days saying it to all my friends. Sure enough, they all loved it and save. But I am going on a trip after the war. The way I was too young to appreciate what the whole thing was about and how anybody, be he great or be he small, has the same opportunity to become president of a big corporation like the Marquard Billiard Parlor or be a bum. So then I really felt crummy about it.

Drama Review

Guys and Dolls

It has, at times, been said that GUYS AND DOLLS is America's best musical. Possibly it is because the milieu that is represented and the characters and language in that milieu are representative of what has become known as being strictly 'American.'

Based on a story and characters of Damon Runyon, Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows, music and lyrics by Frank Loesser, and a book by Abe Burrows and Jo Swerling, the production at the Ithaca College was presented, opening this past Monday, some of the flash and bravado was either dropped or somehow misplaced, but the basic concept of the gamblers and dance-hall girls of New York's main strip remained delightfully intact.

Jim Garofalo, a transfer student from Cornell, now in the Music Schools, took the lead as the big time gambler, Sky Masterson. Caryn Horner, who had the commanding vocal and physical vitality necessary to this part, but fell just short of giving Sky a final polish before coming on. His ballads had warmth and sincerity, his "Luck Be a Lady" a quick-spirited pun.

Sky's "mission doll," Sarah Brown, was played by another music student, Joyce Olson. Although she seemed a bit stiff at times, even for Sarah, her vocal quality was lovely, and the duet with Sky, "I've Never Been in Love Before" was charming.

As Nathan Detroit, Broadway's most comically colorful gambler, another music student, Charles Houlihan, took to the stage. No one could miss the fact that Hurlihan was giving all his all to the part; he often, however, seemed so anxious to keep things going, to move the show quickly forward, that he stepped on his own lauglies.

Unoubtedly the most sparkling performance of the evening was contributed by Jeanne Blumenfeld, Miss Adrienne's 14 year's fiancée of Nathan Detroit, and star of the Hot Box, a rather mazy night club. Miss Blumenfeld commanded wit and vibration arriving at an entirely enjoyable performance quality.

Avaide Abernathy, Sarah's granddaughter, and patriach of the Shaw family, was the dearest small role in the show. Roger Harkenrider brings this old gentian a genius quality that reaches a charming tenderness in "More I Cannot Wish You.

The first time I heard Connie Francis sing "God Bless America" was when I was ten years old. I would watch the gamblers were painting swastikas on synagogues and police cars and I would think myself so anxious—you know the feeling you get when someone drops a manoche over your head. So then I started drinking—moderately at first and then a little bit at a time. Not that I am any world better. There have never been any famous people in the Balinwood family. My mother was pretty rich though—Frieda Vanderbilts was her name. I never got any money off my old lady or her father's relationship to anything on my own, like Bing Crosby's kids, and cut capital on my own. From this world of a new place is the only thing kept old friends, and I would tell them what I had heard. The only thing kept old friends was that I was a great fencing coach and we staked me to enough scratch to get long enough. It was the only thing kept old friends from the bottom up, even though I was only of the fencing. It was exciting before I started. M. Lagalardiere taught me a lot of neat fencing techniques. The Ithacan will probably want to run again even though she has been beaten badly. The present vote-posting probably will scare her off.

Sincere congratulations to all of the Spring Weekend Planning Committee for a job well done. This Weekend proved that Ithaca College can have an enjoyable, well planned, and interesting Spring Weekend.

Working under a great handicap—last Spring Weekend—this year's committee completed the Weekend with a minimum of delay, no debt for the class, no dollar charge to dispute, and no last minute rescheduling of events.

The ITHACAN extends congratulations also to general chairman Mike Verno for his careful coordination and tactful planning of events.

Editorial

Thanks so much for all of these hurriedly letters you readers send me to response to my first editorial. This is perhaps the half-life in the Ithacan. All I can say is that was a breathless and stressful show. Everything was up at the depths of moral and intellectual degradation, and I think that this guy comes up to me and he says, "Bill, this guy is one of the deepest of moral and intellectual degradations, and I think that this guy comes up to me and he says, "Bill, this guy is one of the deepest of moral and intellectual degradation.

So I plowed this guy in the teeth with all the strength of moral and intellectual degradation.

Kappa Gamma Psi Wins Parade Trophy

The "Roaring Twenties," a float Kappa Gamma Psi depicting the popular TV show of the same name, was awarded first prize in the Spring Weekend float parade held last Saturday morning.

Rho Mu Theta's "Tomorrow-land," won second place and "Sea Hunt" by Delta Sigma Pi placed third.

The winning float featured a 1920 version of a getaway car, gangsters, bathtub gin, and a Dixieland band. This is the second successive year that Kappa Gamma won the top prize. Last year, the fraternity depicted a New Orleans funeral procession.

Judges for the float parade were: Dean of Students Earle E. Clarke, TV Instructor Mr. Leonard Arnonoff, Associate Professor of English Dr. John D. Ogden, and Mayor of the city of Ithaca Ralph Smith.

Marge Farrell and Phil DeSimone were crowned Queen and King of the "Adventures In Paradise" ball held last Saturday night at the Statler Hotel.

Ron Daley and Micki Oppenheim were named Prince and Princess, Sue Ann Lurie, sophomore Attendant, and Rosemarie Celelli, freshman Attendant.

Miss Farrell, a member of Delta Phi Zeta sorority, served as secretary of both her sophomore and junior class.

DeSimone, a Physical Education major, is presently serving as secretary of the senior class.

Miss Oppenheim and Daley are both in the Department of Physical Education and Health; Miss Lurie, recently elected Student Council secretary, is in the Music School and Miss Celelli is majoring in Physiotherapy.

The winners of the Spring Weekend Court were determined by a general vote of the student body last week.

This election was the first in which the number scores of each candidate were posted.

Delta Phi Zeta sorority presented "Have Gun Will Travel" as its entry.

Tennis Team Drops Opener to Hamilton College 6 - 4

By Lois Chabner

GOLF TEAM HAS FOUR RETURNING LETTERMEN; OPENER RAINED OUT

Coach Herb Broadwell believes his veterans Ithaca College golf team will make a good showing this season. He says, however, that they’ll have to be lucky to do as well as the 1960 Bobick lineup, who were undefeated in 19 matches.

The Ithacan’s scheduled opener last Saturday against Alfred was rained out.

The number one and two performers of last year, Gene Steffens of Beacon and Stan Zablenki of Glen Head, are on hand; and also two lettermen, Tom Costella of Westminster and Howie Hubert of Elmira. Barry Roman of Elmsford, who has competed on the team, also is available.

Broadwell will pick the rest of the team from John Hewes of Brewerton, Jack McCarthy of Hamilton, John Guinan of Ovid, Steve Rose of Brooklyn, Robert Staverman of Bound Brook, N.J., Fred Gils of Palmer, Mass., and George Neher of West Camp.

April 20, Cortland; 26, at Le Moyne; 29, at Hartwick; 9, Harper; 11, Utica; 13, Brockport; 16, Alfred; 18, Harper.

VERNO NAMED PRES. OF RHO TAU SIGMA

The members of Eta Tau Sigma, professional Radio-TV Fraternity, recently elected Vern F. Veron president for the next academic year.

The election was held during the fraternity’s business meeting last Thursday. During the meeting, eight new members were formally initiated into the fraternity.

Don Rich was elected vice-president, Maria Stalos, recording secretary; Susan Mastronardi, corresponding secretary, and John Caciani, treasurer.

Verno was elected: Jerry Gordon, social chairman; Doug Trommer, sergeant-at-arms; Bill Dill, IFC historian; Phil English, chaplain; Mark Reis, Ithaca’s secretary; George Gobdot, alumni secretary.
