The program consists of transcriptions and original music for two pianos. The first group consists of transcriptions of the XVIII Century masters - Bach, Handel, and their less famous contemporaries, Dietrich Buxtehude. Familiar to most listeners is the Bach group:

"Sheep May Safely Graze," known both in Mary Home's arrangement for two pianos, and the solo transcription by J. P. Simeon.

The second part of the program is devoted to the Suite Scaramouche

by the contemporary French composer, Darius Milhaud, now residing in the United States. It was

Prom Queen Elections

In Back Lobby

Next Friday

The first preparatory meetings for Junior Week are being held, and it is apparent that the fruitful efforts of the committees will result in a greater social event of the college season on May 2, 3, 4.

Arthur J. C. Freeman is chairman for the week with Lorraine Bennison in charge of decorations and Susan Jones in charge of tickets. Chairs are not included.

The Prom committee will be ready on周五 afternoon to accept the election meetings. In the class of '48, Bruce Fishery, Arthur Navy and Jerome Allen are the candidates for the presidential. Fishery, a member of Alpha Theta Alpha, has been seen in Uncle Harry, Visal" and has taken an active part in the operation of the radio workshop station, WICR. Navy, a member of Delta Sigma, is the general chairman of the Junior Prom committee. Allen plays tuxdy in the Concert Band, and the Symphony Orchestra, and was a member of the classof '47. He is a member of Kappa Gamma.

Competing for the position of vice-president in the class of '48 are Jane Peters, Edith Osterdor, Doro-

Lee Howard and Jean Petras. Joan Bloom, Suzanne Jones and Edmond Geller are the candidates for Secretary, while David Mostovsky, Jane Peters and Louise Yavits are running for the treasurer.

Said Levenon, George Crouse and Jerry Leonard are the men to try out for the office of President, while Levenon, a member of Kappa Gamma, is the current Spacker. The college stage this year in "Pig O' My Heart, Lute George, Aisbey, Distrall and Fishery" is a frosty one. George Crouse was a member of the baseball team last year and left for the service. He appeared in this year's Spacker and is a prospective member of Phi Epulon. Leonard is another member of Kappa Gamma seeking a class office.

Candidates for the vice-presidency of his junior class are Skip Arman, Maddy Robbins and Kenneth McKernan. The secretary-will be either Paula Venneri, Ann Tate, Ron (Dee Dee) Brooks Club, and the class of '49 list among Mary Beaulou, Barry Backer and John Roach.

In the class of 50, Darvish Alison, Alice Anagnos, David Carter and John McEigue are the candidates for President. Alison is a member of Adelphi and a prospective member of Phi Mu Alpha. He has given up his piano recitals during the year. Alice Anagnos is a member of Delta Sigma and Paul Backer is a Phi Mu Alpha.

SURPPRESSION OF OPINION?

This country is now in the throes of one of the hottest issues of years and one which is particularly concerning college students, is the AYD. It asks that this organization be suppressed, that college students be prevented from the expression of their ideas or of their opinions.

The AYD (American Youth for Democracy) has been quite active on this campus. Rita Cohn, for instance, has been quite active in this organization and in many others. AYD is to be curbed, not banned, but curbed, not banned.

The AYD, as an organization, is not a dangerous one. It is an organization for the purpose of freedom of thought, and the principle of which is the practice and ideology of freedom of thought. It is an organization of those who support the freedoms of the individual, and who support the freedoms of speech, of the press, of religion, of association.

The AYD, however, has had its share of trouble. It has been accused of being a Communist front, and of being a Communist organization. The AYD, however, has never been accused of having any connection with the Communist party. It has been accused of being a propaganda organ, and of being a tool of the Communist party. This is not true.

The AYD is a group of students who support the freedoms of the individual, and who support the freedoms of speech, of the press, of religion, of association.

Cindermen Meet Rochester
Next Week In Lilac City

BROADWELL NEW NET COACH, LIGHT WILL LEAD LINK Squad

Well, it looks like things are rellishing up, what with the weather "hot on the heels of high school basketball."

From now on until the closing of school Percy Field will be a beehive of activity for the fast approaching high school basketball season.

The Cindermen coach by "Dox" Yaw, who is being ably assisted by "Whitey" Cole this year will open in "The Yellowjackets" at the Flower City next week, and we hope for the best for the team and prospects look good.

The games will be held this week by Coach Yaw's, to pick his team for the Rochester meet. Before each meet time trials will be held to pick the team for that particular meet.

Some of the candidates fighting for berths are: Sprites-Dave Jones, La Ving, Towler, Samml Smith, Jabez. Quarter mile: Comple- lant, Lieven, Treadwell, Finkelk- ber, Rother, Jabez. Miles: Bush, Hutchinson, Sheldon, Miles & 2 miles: Brokaw, Yavitz, Mulline.

The starting nine for this season's games were Halm, Mullane, Hurst, Business manager of Kappa Gamma Psi and editor-in-chief of the Cayugan.

Miss Cindermen is a senior in the freshmen basketball team of the college and is being ably assisted by "Dixie" Walker, her assistant. The Cayugan.

TAPE AND LIFENIM

By Harry Robertson

We don't like to harp on any one subject, but we do find that constant reference to a particular problem or circumstance is enlighten- ing in many respects, even if it is only personal satisfaction on hearing reports, or learning of responses to whether through this column. For instance, we're still interested in seeing what the Durocher-less Dodgers, who have jumped along with the rest in the Dodgers farm club at Montreal. Last year, he played every position in the infield but first base (at least, he never played there consistently) and this year he's expected to play only at first grade at such an unfamiliar corner of the infield would hold an ex- cellent chance to win the championship in his first year of playing high league obscurity. However, his natural talent should bring him through his first "graping" days at first base for Brooklyn. It seems to us that he's really a very comer as a first baseman.

As a matter of fact, the modern newspaper serves as an outlet for one's own forces—both negative and positive propaganda. We don't think it's quite necessary to climb political "flag-wagons," but as for championing a cause, we do stand on the firm conviction that Negro athletes, if they are physically and athletically talented enough to make the grade, can be competitive, professional sports of major league caliber! In this fast- growing, expanding, liberal-minded society, how many more generations must pass in review before we lose the bigoted, narrow-minded intolerance established by some of our not-so-worthy forefathers? In the pages of these fine newspapers in figures and circles, there have been some mighty good fellows, that's for sure . . .

This week marks the beginning of another baseball season, and the opinions for and against integration are being debated with the same vehemence that some people used to put on a substantial limb for the Cardinals to hold on to their World Series flags. The controversy continues.

In fact, Ithaca College's own season starts this week, today being the opening day of the intramural basketball season.

As long as there is a journalism program there will be a controversy over it. It is going on which will set the tone for the coming weeks. Its main attraction this year is going to be a "majors" baseball team for the first time. The two IC students arc shaping up, what with the pros at the start of their career.

The boys' intramural basketball team for the first time was coached for the third year in a row. The team is being ably assisted by Steve Spear, Mr. Eugene Wood, among others.

Advanced Directing Class Rehearsing One-Acts Scheduled for Little Theatre

The Ithaca College Drama Department invites the public to attend a program of one-acts to be presented in the Little Theatre, Tuesday, April 19. The plays are: "The Wonder Hat," "The Hard Hat," "Our Church," "The Mystery of the Missing Portrait." The show will begin at 8:15. The ticket price will be 10 cents each or three for 25 cents.

The vice-presidential candidates among the freshmen are Robert R. Rine, James Wilson and Frank Manning. Dorothy Parodi, Judy Jones, W.网店, and Barbara Jensen are competing for the secre- tary post. Among the choices for treasurer are: Jerry Mann, Arthur Booth and Taisco Tronton. Dance is a major subject of discussion in the different classes as they have not been announced. But, watch the pages for announcements of class meetings for the elec- tions of officers.

Voting is a democratic privilege, but it is democratic only when it is practiced. Only then is it a democratic privilege.

Quiz Participation Show Next Week Over WIR

Due to last minute changes, "In- side Ithaca," which was scheduled for March 25, was recorded and taped on April 1st. The on-air subscription on April 8. "Laurel" which was scheduled for April 8, was aired April 9th. The new disc jockey show will begin next week and a new disc jockey show will begin next week and continue.

Dorothy Clark is directing the "Boobs" by Chekov. Her cast includes Bert Reiners, Phyllis Pendleton, and Bill Grandin.

The only way I can tell it’s Spring is to look out my window onto the inviting expanses of the Cascadilla Gorge. There I see several couples leisurely strolling arm in arm through the stone-strewn wonderland of wildflowers. I imagine that they are the victors of the fly bug, and that I cannot control the coughing tantrums which overtake me hour by hour. But I'm not the only sufferer! Ken-choo! No! About half the people enrolled in Ithaca College have colds right now. Mr. Stafford, who owns the store corner, Reported that he had sold out of cold remedies in about a week since the beginning of the school year. Why, I ask myself, when I still have a lot of spring to come? Isn't it a good-going, sudden contract a serious case of flu? I approached several people—Mrs. Fogle among them—and asked them why this de- pressing condition exists. I had hoped to find a suitable answer to this perplexing problem, but I received an identical reply from each of those queried. They all sneezed in my face and walked briskly away.

All, we can say is, "Ken-choo!"

During the Spring recess, I participated in one of the oldest racketts known to the purveyors of the penny arcade. I played the pinball machine. I was there the other night, losing a small four- tine in Monticello nickels, I discovered why this extravagant pastime was not put up among the must faces here at the college. The answer is simple enough. No one can afford to throw hard-earned nickels into a hungry slot-machine, and still manage to eat regularly. It's a fasci- nating game, but only when you replace your monetary ammuni- tion by dipping a paw into papa's pants pocket while he sleeps in a care chair after his daily performance. James D. Thompson of the M.I.B. knows that we don't have to go to a penny arcade to see a one-armed bandit. We have enough of the two-armed variety manning the cash-drawers of our local restaurants.

The heralded motion-picture version of Shakespeare's Henry IV, Part I will have its local showing on Thursday and Friday of next week. The Laurence Olivier vehicle will be playing to reserved seats only on both these occasions, in keeping with the J. Arthur Rank policy. The film, which lists Olivier as both star and director, received a special award at the recent Academy Awards ceremony. It is the first time in several years that a few successful attempts to translate Shakespeare in toto to the modern screen. Much credit is due the English actor for his very virtuous even- ture. Don't miss seeing it!

The class elections which are in swing at the moment bring in an interesting contrast which might be worth mentioning in the light of events which have occurred in recent weeks. There is something of the same spirit that exists in the Student Senate. Entirely elected members have the opportunity, in that they may select their new senators, to give themselves power to operate with the fewest possible restrictions. It might be worthwhile to have each class meet and select the candidates presented to them by the campaigners. It might save a great deal of unnecessary embarrassment later on.

Personal Mention: Don't forget the Kuala Kwiz which will be presented in the Green Room Tuesday evening at 7:15 p.m. The public is invited by the staff of the Terrace and by yours truly who will serve as quizmaster for the occasion.

A clever idea on the atomic theme has been turned into a sparkling comedy in Pat Frank's Mr. Adams. The story flows from the pens of the newspaperman here, Steve Smith, who accidentally turns up a story which is the dream of a lifetime. When his trick knee gives out on him and he ends up in a hospital with a doctor and friend discovers that on and after a certain date there are no reservations in the maternity wards in New York City. Steve's wife, Martha, in the role of O.P.A., One of the most important producers of great- men at this time of the 74th Street neighborhood of 450. In this spring election of 1947, I doubt very much whether the entire class is acquainted with the people they will have to select. It might be worthwhile to have each class meet and select the candidates presented to them by the campaigners. It might save a great deal of unnecessary embarrassment later on.
