Better Now Than Never

Not to seem morbid or sentimental is the following editorial reprinted from The Ithaca Journal News.

"If we could know the secret histories of our enemies, we would find in each life sorrow and suffering enough to disarm all hostility. For the mind of a freshman. When you put your feet in at theatres. Dangerous to know in your heart you would be filled with chagrin and fear. Fighting enough to disarm all hostility. For the mind of a freshman.

Uncle Dudley

Dudley Student EDITORS

In the Boston Globe Daily for Thursday, March 12, Uncle Dudley, the columnist, submitted a dissertation on newswriters and their work. He pointed out that the work of newswriters is not an easy task, and that they must be prepared to face many challenges.

Dudley continued, "The newswriter is a vital member of a newsroom, and his work is critical to the functioning of a newspaper. He must be able to deliver accurate and timely information to the public, and he must be able to do so in a way that is both informative and entertaining."

Dudley concluded, "The newswriter is a vital member of a newsroom, and his work is critical to the functioning of a newspaper. He must be able to deliver accurate and timely information to the public, and he must be able to do so in a way that is both informative and entertaining."
