Ravel’s Bolero Provides Contrast for Beethoven's Fifth Symphony

May 22—The sixth, and last, of a series of Sunday afternoon concerts, presented by the Ithaca Symphony, opened the evening with a performance of Beethoven’s Fifth Symphony and Ravel’s Bolero, was well received.

This afternoon’s performance concluded a series of extremely interesting and educational organs that have been enjoyed by all who heard and who have seen the concert. The performance was an exquisitely ten­sions. It was first presented earlier by every interested and educational concerts heard concluded a series of extremely in­teresting and educational concerts heard.

Like all other forms of Jap­anese music and literature, the shad­ing industry around the El­iza­beth, is evolved. New ships are being built to replace the used re­duction plants are larger. Every year between the middle of July and the end of August, all may whales appear in that area. The Manchurian and Shantung coast, and the Japs have built up a monoply of the whaling business in this part of the world.

WELCOME TO TOURNAMENT GUESTS

As a student of Ithaca College, and as the editor-in-chief of THE ITHACAN, I am deeply advocate of the friendship between the various departments of the college, high scholastic attainments, interfraternity understanding, loyalty to the Alma Mater and a common bond of interest between faculty and students.

I am looking forward to my journalistic career with no small pleasure, for I am confident that the hearty support of the student body of Ithaca College shall be afforded cooperation, I believe that in the end fairness to all is most of major benefit to Ithaca College and its members.

Your editor’s policy shall be to broadly support and for interpretation. Your editor’s policy shall be to loyally support and

The end of the school year is at hand and the undertakings of Phi E K are drawing to a close. The evening of Friday, May 13, we will have our final meeting of the year and also plan to have a second election. Our officers for the coming year will be announced at this meeting. We hope to have a large crowd of men present to support our officers and to help in the planning of our fraternity for the coming year. We are looking forward to a very successful year under the leadership of our new officers.

Delta Phi

This past week has been a busy one for all the girls at Delta Phi. Monday night we had our annual Spring Banquet and on Tuesday, we had our last meeting of the year. We will be holding our last meeting on Thursday evening, May 19th, at 8:00 p.m. in the Ithaca YWCA. All members are welcome to attend.

PHI MU

Our annual spring banquet was held at Willard Straight Hall on Tuesday evening. The dinner was enjoyed by all and the entertainment was provided by a short musical program. For many of us, this is the last banquet we will be able to attend and I am sure everyone is looking forward to seeing you again.

PHI EPSILON KAPPA

At that time May 23rd, we will have our first big fraternity event of the year, the fraternity formal. We hope to have a large turnout of members and guests. The program will include music, dances, and a formal dinner.

Send Flowers

The Guaranteed Way

By FTD

When sending flowers by wire, always look for the Mercury Emblem, sign of the most reliable delivery service. Then on time, safe delivery of your order is guaranteed — even you receive an FTD bill showing that fact. More than 4,000 florists all over the world are a part of this great system that makes underflower delivered anywhere, and be able to depend on their delivery. And you save money, too.
