Translations

Im Herbst

Autumn has come and all the leaves are falling
Now sinks my heart despondent, deep in pain,
Still are the fields, the songbirds southward flying
In distant flight no more they sing.
Weary is man, he sees the sun descending
Alas! That life ends as the year must close.
Tears fill the eyes, yet through the tears is shining
The hope that life will start anew.

Maquerúle

Maquerúle was a baker fellow from Andagoya
They called him "good old Maquerúle," going broke selling on credit

Chorus

Knead the bread, Maquerúle, work it out
Work the bread with your hands, sweat it out,
Pim, pam, pum, Maquerúle,
Pim, pam, pum, sweat it out

Maquerúle isn't here, Maquerúle is in Condoto
When he comes back, he'll find his wife's gone off with another

Maquerúle kneads the bread, but now he sells cash only.
Maquerúle doesn't want to sell his bread on credit.
