Alcandro, lo confesso K.512 by Mozart
Text: Pietro Metastasio (1698-1782)

Alcandro, lo confesso, stupisco di me stesso.
Il volto, il ciglio, la voce di costui
nel cor mi desta un palpito improvviso,
Che le risente in ogni fibra il sangue.
Fra tutti i miei pensieri La cagion ne ricerco,
e non la trovo.
Che sarà, giusti Dei, questo ch'io provo?

Alcandro, I confess, I am astonished at myself.
The face, the eyes, the voice of that person
Arouse in my heart a sudden throbbing.
Which is felt in every fiber of my blood.
In all my thoughts I search for its cause,
And do not find it.
What could it be, righteous Gods, that I feel?

Don Quichotte à Dulcinée by Ravel
Text: Paul Morand (1888-1976)

Chanson Romanesque

Si vous me disiez que la terre
À tant tourner vous offensa,
Je lui dépécherais Pança:
Vous la verriez fixe et se taire.

Si vous me disiez que l'ennui
Vous vient du ciel trop fleuri d'astres,
Déchirant les divins cadastres,
Je faucherais d'un coup la nuit.

Si vous me disiez que l'espace
Ainsi vidé ne vous plaît point,
Chevalier dieu, la lance au poing.
J'étoilerais le vent qui passe.

Si vous me disiez que mon sang
Est plus à moi qu'à vous, ma Dame,
Je blêmirais dessous le blâme
Et je mourrais, vous bénissant.

Romanesque Song

If you told me the eternal turning
Of the world, offended you.
I would send Panza:
you would see it motionless and silent.

If you told me you were bored
by the number of stars in the sky.
I would tear the heavens apart,
Erase the night in one swipe.

If you told me that the now-empty space doesn't please you,
Chevalier dieu, with a lance at hand
I would fill the wind with stars.

But, my Lady, if you told me that my blood is more mine than yours.
That reprimand would turn me pale
And, blessing you, I would die.
Ô Dulcinée.

Chanson épique

Bon Saint Michel qui me donnez loisir
De voir ma Dame et de l'entendre,
Bon Saint Michel qui me daignez choisir
Pour lui complaire et la défendre,
Bon Saint Michel veuillez descendre
Avec Saint Georges sur l'autel
De la Madone au bleu mantel.

D'un rayon du ciel bénissez ma lame
Et son égale en pureté
Et son égale en piété
Comme en pudeur et chasteté:
Ma Dame,

Ô grands Saint Georges et Saint Michel
L'ange qui veille sur ma veille,
Ma douce Dame si pareille
À Vous, Madone au bleu mantel!
Amen

Chanson à boire

Foin du bâtard, illustre Dame,
Qui pour me perdre à vos doux yeux
Dit que l'amour et le vin vieux
Mettent en deuill mon coeur, mon âme!

Ah! Je bois à la joie!
La joie est le seul but
Où je vais droit...
Lorsque j'ai ... lorsque j'ai bu!

Foin du jaloux, brune maîtresse,
Qui geint, qui pleure et fait serment
D'être toujours ce pâle amant
Qui met de l'eau dans son ivresse!

Ah! Je bois à la joie!...

Chansons De Don Quichotte by Ibert
Text: Pierre de Ronsard and Alexandre Arnoux

Chanson du dé part de Don Quichotte

Ce château neuf, ce nouvel édifice
Tout enrichi de marbre et de porphyre

The Song of Don Quixote's parting

This new castle, this new building, enriched with marble and porphyry,
Qu'amour bâtit château de son empire
où tout le ciel a mis son artifice,
Est un rempart, un fort contre le vice,
Où la vertueuse maîtresse se retire,
Que l'œil regarde et que l'esprit admire
Forçant les coeurs à lui faire service.
C'est un château, fait de telle sorte
Que nul ne peut approcher de la porte
Si des grands rois il n'a sauvé sa race
Victorieux, vaillant et amoureux.
Nul chevalier tant soit aventureux
Sans être tel ne peut gagner la place.

Chanson à Dulcinée

Un an me dure la journée
Si je ne vois ma Dulcinée.
Mais, amour a peint son visage,
Afin d'adoucir ma langueur,
Dans la fontaine et le nuage,
Dans chaque aurore et chaque fleur.

Un an me dure la journée
Si je ne vois ma Dulcinée.
Toujours proche et toujours lointaine,
Étoile de mes long chemins,
Le vent m'apporte son haleine
Quand il passé sur les jasmines.

Un an me dure la journée
Si je ne vois ma Dulcinée.

Chanson du duc

Je veux chanter ici la dame de mes songes
Qui m’exalte au-dessus de ce siècle de boue.
Son Coeur de diamant est vierge de mensonges,
La rose s’obscurcit au regard de sa joue.

Pour elle j’ai tanté les hautes avenures:
Mon bras a délivéré la princesse en servage,
J’ai vaincu l’enchanteur, confondu les perjures,
Et ployé l’univers à lui render where love built a castle for his empire and all of heaven added their skills,

It is a rampart, a fortress against vice,
whose virtuous mistress hides herself away,
whom the eye beholds and the spirit admires,
forcing hearts to her service.
It is a castle, made in such a way that none may approach its door unless he has saved his people from Great Kings, victorious, valiant and loving.
No knight, no matter how adventurous, can enter without being such a person.

Song to Dulcinea

A day seems like a year
If I do not see my Dulcinea.
But to sweeten my languishing,
Love has painted her face
In fountains and clouds,
In every dawn and every flower.

A day seems like a year
If I do not see my Dulcinea.
Ever near and ever far,
Star of my weary journeying,
Her breath is brought to me on the breeze,
As it passes over jasmine flowers.

A day seems like a year
If I do not see my Dulcinea.

The Duke’s Song

I wish now to praise the Lady of my dreams,
Who lifts me above this squalid age.
Her diamond heart is devoid of deceit,
The rose grows dim beside her cheeks.

For her I’ve embarked on great adventures:
Princesses in thrall I’ve freed with my arm,
I’ve vanquished sorcerers, confounded perjurers,
And compelled the universe to pay her l'hommage.    homage.

Dame par qui je vais, seul dessus cette terre,
Qui ne soit prisonnier de la fausse apparence,
Je soutiens contre tout chevalier téméraire
Votre éclat non pareil et votre précellence.

Lady, for whom I travel this earth alone,
Who is not deceived by false pretences,
Against any rash knight I shall uphold
Your peerless beauty and perfection.

Chanson de la mort de Don Quichotte

Ne pleure pas, Sancho,
Ne pleure pas, mon bon,
Ton maître n’est pas mort,
Il n’est pas loin de toi,
Il vit dans une île heureuse
Où tout est pur et sans mensonge,
Dans l’île enfin trouvée
Où tu viendras un jour,
Dans l’île désirée,
Ô mon ami Sancho.

Weep not, Sancho,
Weep not, good fellow,
Your master is not dead,
He is not far from you,
He lives on a happy isle,
Where all is pure and truthful,
On this isle that he has finally found,
Where you shall also come one day,
On this longed-for isle,
O Sancho, my friend.

Les livres sont brûlés
Et font un tas de cendres,
Si tous les livres m’ont tué,
Il suffit d’un pour que je vive;
Fantome dans la vie
Et réel dans la mort-
Tel est l’étrange sort
Du pauvre Don Quichotte, Ah!

Books have been burnt
To a heap of ashes.
If all those books have caused my death,
It will take but one to make me live;
A phantom in life
And real in death.
Such is the strange fate
Of poor Don Quixote. Ah!

Songs of Travel by Vaughan Williams

Text: Robert Louis Stevenson

The Vagabond

Give to me the life I love, Let the lave go by me, Give the jolly heaven above, And the byway nigh me. Bed in the bush with stars to see, Bread I dip in the river – There's the life for a man like me, There's the life for ever.

Let the blow fall soon or late, Let what will be o'er me; Give the face of earth around, And the road before me. Wealth I seek not, hope nor love, Nor a friend to know me; All I seek, the heaven above, And the road below me.

Or let autumn fall on me Where afield I linger, Silencing the bird on tree, Biting the blue finger. White as meal the frosty field – Warm the fireside haven – Not to autumn will I yield, Not to winter even!

Let the blow fall soon or late, Let what will be o'er me; Give the face of earth around, And the road before me. Wealth I ask not, hope nor love, Nor a friend to know me; All I ask, the heaven above, And the road below me.

Let Beauty Awake

Let Beauty awake in the morn from beautiful dreams, Beauty awake from rest! Let Beauty awake For Beauty's sake In the hour when the birds awake in the brake And the stars are bright in the west!

Let Beauty awake in the eve from the slumber of day, Awake in the crimson eve! In the day's dusk end When the shades ascend, Let her wake to the kiss of a tender friend To render again and receive!

The Roadside Fire

I will make you brooches and toys for your delight Of bird-song at morning and star-shine at night, I will make a palace fit for you and me Of green days in forests, and blue days at sea.

I will make my kitchen, and you shall keep your room, Where white flows the river and bright blows the broom; And you shall wash your linen and keep your body white In rainfall at morning and dewfall at night.

And this shall be for music when no one else is near, The fine song for singing, the rare song to hear! That only I remember, that only you admire, Of the broad road that stretches and the roadside fire.

Youth and Love

To the heart of youth the world is a highwayside. Passing for ever, he fares; and on either hand, Deep in the gardens golden pavilions hide, Nestle in orchard bloom, and far on the level land Call him with lighted lamp in the eventide.

Thick as the stars at night when the moon is down, Pleasures assail him. He to his nobler fate Fares; and but waves a hand as he passes on, Cries but a wayside word to her at the garden gate, Sings but a boyish stave and his face is gone.

In Dreams

In dreams unhappy, I behold you stand As heretofore: The unremember'd tokens in your hand Avail no more.

No more the morning glow, no more the grace, Enshrines, endears. Cold beats the light of time upon your face And shows your tears.

He came and went. Perchance you wept awhile And then forgot. Ah me! but he that left you with a smile Forgets you not.

The infinite shining heavens

The infinite shining heavens Rose, and I saw in the night Uncountable angel stars Showering sorrow and light.

I saw them distant as heaven, Dumb and shining and dead, And the idle stars of the night Were dearer to me than bread.

Night after night in my sorrow The stars stood over the sea, Till lo! I looked in the dusk And a star had come down to me.
Whither must I wander?

Home no more home to me, whither must I wander? Hunger my driver, I go where I must. Cold blows the winter wind over hill and heather; Thick drives the rain, and my roof is in the dust. Loved of wise men was the shade of my roof-tree. The true word of welcome was spoken in the door - Dear days of old, with the faces in the firelight, Kind folks of old, you come again no more.

Home was home then, my dear, full of kindly faces, Home was home then, my dear, happy for the child. Fire and the windows bright glittered on the moorland; Song, tuneful song, built a palace in the wild. Now, when day dawns on the brow of the moorland, Lone stands the house, and the chimney-stone is cold. Lone let it stand, now the friends are all departed, The kind hearts, the true hearts, that loved the place of old.

Spring shall come, come again, calling up the moorfowl, Spring shall bring the sun and rain, bring the bees and flowers; Red shall the heather bloom over hill and valley, Soft flow the stream through the even-flowing hours; Fair the day shine as it shone on my childhood - Fair shine the day on the house with open door; Birds come and cry there and twitter in the chimney -But I go for ever and come again no more.

Bright is the Ring of Words

Bright is the ring of words When the right man rings them, Fair the fall of songs When the singer sings them. Still they are carolled and said - On wings they are carried - After the singer is dead And the maker buried.

Low as the singer lies In the field of heather, Songs of his fashion bring The swains together. And when the west is red With the sunset embers, The lover lingers and sings And the maid remembers

I have trod the upward and the downward slope

I have trod the upward and the downward slope; I have endured and done in days before; I have longed for all, and bid farewell to hope; And I have lived and loved, and closed the door.
