Conductor Biographies

Art Carichner

Art Carichner taught thirty-five years as a public school teacher for the Horseheads School District. During his tenure he served as the Marching Band Director, winning two state titles, Concert Band Director, and working with the Jazz Band. During his last ten years of service he was the Wind Ensemble Director and Director of the Music Department for the District. The Wind Ensemble participated in NYSSMA receiving eight Gold Medals with distinction, level six awards, was featured at the New York State Band Directors Conference, and hosted several composers including Francis McBeth, Frank Ticheli, Jack Stamp, Andrew Boysen, David Holsinger, Timothy Mahr, and Chris Tucker.

Mr. Carichner has participated in conducting workshops, studying with Col. Arnold Gabriel, H Robert Reynolds, Dr. Mallory Thompson, and Dr. Steve Peterson. Mr. Carichner served as the All-State Chairman for NYSSMA and has participated in several tours conducting throughout Europe. In addition to conducting Campus Band, Mr. Carichner supervises student teachers for Ithaca College, and is currently filling in a sabbatical leave for Dr. Isbell.

Bill Tiberio

Bill Tiberio is in his 31st year as an educator at Fairport High School and is on the staff at the Eastman Community Music School, University of Rochester Music Department, and has been teaching jazz bands at IC for 4 years. He conducts two ensembles comprised of music educators in Rochester, and his jazz and concert bands at Fairport have been recognized for excellence for decades. He has a contemporary jazz quintet under his name and performs regularly in the Rochester area on saxophone.
