Overture "Iphigenia in Aulis".....Chr. W. Gluck
(Richard Wagner's version)(a) Am stillen Herd }
(b) Preislied } (Die Meistersinger von Nuernberg)
..... *Richard Wagner*Les Préludes, symphonic poem.....Fr. Liszt

What is life but a series of preludes to an unknown song of which death is the first solemn note? —Love is the enchanted awakening of all life, but is there a destiny wherein the first joyous raptures are not interrupted by the storms of life whose power shatters the fair illusions and destroys its altar? What soul cruelly wounded, would not seek after such qualms to repose its memories in the peaceful calm of the fields? Man however is hardly resigned to taste the tedious comfort which first charmed him on the breast of Nature and when "the trumpet sounds the signal" he dashes to his dangerous post whatever the combat which calls him to its ranks, finally to recover his better self and the full possession of his power.
