Peggy Dettwiler is Professor of Music and Director of Choral Activities at Mansfield University in Mansfield, Pennsylvania, where she conducts the Concert Choir, Festival Chorus, and Mansfieldians, and teaches choral conducting and methods. Before coming to Mansfield, she was assistant conductor to Donald Neuen at the Eastman School of Music, where she received a Doctor of Musical Arts Degree in Conducting. She also has a master of Music Degree in Choral Conducting from the University of Texas at San Antonio.

She also holds a Master of Music Degree in Music Education from the University of Wisconsin in Madison.

Dr. Dettwiler's choral experience includes working with singers of all ages through university, public school, church and community choruses. Prior to coming to Mansfield in 1990, she was Director of Choral Activities at St. Mary’s University in San Antonio, Texas, and Choral Director at Mt. Horeb High School in Mt. Horeb, Wisconsin. She has served as a guest conductor and lecturer throughout the United States, and she has given presentations at numerous MENC and ACDA Conventions. In addition, she has studied orchestral conducting and appeared in concert in the Czech Republic and at the Oregon Bach Festival. Her articles, “Developing Aural Skills through Choral Warm-ups” and “Grading the Choral Ensemble...No More Excuses,” were printed in the October 1989 and April 1995 issues of the Choral Journal published by the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA). The Mansfield University Student Chapter of ACDA, which she advises, was recognized as the Outstanding Student Chapter in the nation in 1997 and 2001 by the American Choral Directors Association, and the Mansfield University Concert Choir has been invited each of the last eleven years to perform at state, regional, national, or international choral conventions.
Jeffrey Grogan comes to Ithaca College from Baylor University where he was Acting Director of Bands, conducting the wind ensemble, and teaching courses in conducting and music education. Mr. Grogan recently traveled to Europe where he conducted the Bohuslava Martinu Philharmonic Orchestra of Zlín, Czech Republic. During that time he studied with several prominent conductors including Mariusz Smolij (Houston Symphony), Tomás Koutník (Prague Conservatory), Johannes Schlaefli (Musik-Hochschule Winterthur Zürich), and Kirk Trevor (Knoxville Symphony and the Indianapolis Chamber Orchestra.)

In addition to his duties at Baylor, Grogan was assistant conductor and pre-concert lecturer for the Waco Symphony Orchestra and co-conductor of the Waco Symphony Youth Orchestra. Prior to joining the Baylor faculty, he was a member of the faculty at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor and taught in the public schools of the DeSoto Independent School District in DeSoto, Texas. Grogan’s degrees are from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor and Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, Texas.

Stephen Peterson was appointed Director of Bands at Ithaca College in Ithaca, New York, in 1998, where he currently conducts the Wind Ensemble and teaches courses in conducting and wind literature. From 1988-1998 he served as Associate Director of Bands at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois. Dr. Peterson was also Conductor of the renowned Northshore Concert Band. He served on the faculty at Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, Texas and has several years of successful teaching experience in the public schools in Arizona.
Dr. Peterson holds the Doctor of Music degree from Northwestern University and Master’s and Bachelor’s degrees from Arizona State University. His ensembles have appeared before conventions of the American Bandmaster’s Association, the College Band Director’s National Association, the National Association of College Wind and Percussion Instructors, the American School Band Director’s Association, at Orchestra Hall with the Chicago Symphony Chorus, and at Lincoln Center. For many years Peterson served as a new music reviewer for The Instrumentalist Magazine, and is active as a conductor and clinician throughout the United States, Canada, and the Republic of China. He is a member of the Music Educator’s National Conference, the College Band Directors National Association, the World Association of Symphonic Bands and Ensembles, The New York State Band Director’s Association, the New York State School Music Association, and has been honored with membership in the prestigious American Bandmaster’s Association.

Sandra Snow is Assistant Professor in the School of Music at the University of Michigan with appointments in choral music education and conducting. She conducts the University Choir, Women’s Glee Club, and teaches undergraduate conducting. In the area of teacher training, she teaches a pedagogy course in choral methods and materials, observes choral music education majors in the field, and organizes an internship program in partnership with area schools.

As a member of a graduate faculty, Dr. Snow serves on dissertation committees in both Ph.D. and DMA programs and trains graduate student instructors in student teaching observation.

Reflecting her commitment to young singers Dr. Snow conducts the Michigan Youth Women’s chorale, an auditioned choir of high school women from across Michigan. Summer teaching includes the Summer Arts Institute at the University of Michigan for middle school students as well as teacher workshops for professional development in areas such as conductor and teacher-training.

Dr. Snow has considerable experience with young singers, as Music Director of the Glen Ellyn Children’s Chorus and Founder and Music Director of the Carolina Children’s Chorus. Ensembles under her direction have been awarded a variety of grants, including the National Endowment for the Arts in recognition of outstanding programming and educational opportunities for children.

In demand as a guest conductor and clinician, Dr. Snow conducts honor choirs, all-state choirs, festivals, workshops, and clinics across the United States and Canada. She is a founding member of the Association for Choral Music Education and is a member of the faculty for summer certification courses and the annual Choral Music Experience Institute. This year Dr. Snow will conduct honors choirs, all-state choirs and choral workshops in Michigan, Illinois, North Carolina, New York, Florida, Texas, Louisiana, and Canada.

Dr. Snow edits the middle school choral series, Building Brides, for Boosey and Hawkes and recently co-authored a chapter on the choral classroom in the revised Dimension of Musical Learning and Teaching, published by MENC: The National Association for Music Education. Prior to her appointment at the University of Michigan, Dr. Snow was Director of Choral programs at Northern Illinois University where she directed undergraduate and graduate choral and conducting programs.

David S. Zerull is Associate Professor of Music Education and Associate Conductor of the Wind Ensemble at Shenandoah University, joining the faculty in 1990 after 13 years of public and private school teaching in music education. A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Dr. Zerull earned is Bachelor of Music degree in Music Education and Master of Music degree in Orchestral Conducting from Bowling Green State University, and his doctor of Philosophy degree in Music Education from Northwestern University.

His experience includes teaching vocal music at Lutheran High School west (Rocky River, Ohio); elementary instrumental music as graduate assistant at Bowling Green in the Laboratory School Project; and Director of Bands and Orchestra at Northwest Senior High School (Cincinnati, Ohio). As a teaching assistant and instructor at Northwestern university, he taught double reed methods class. Dr. Zerull was the 1990 winner of the "Young Writers Competition" sponsored by Heldref Publications. His article, "Evaluation in Arts Education: Building and Utilizing an Effective Assessment Strategy" appeared in the October 1990 issue of Design for Arts in Education magazine. He has also published articles in the Music Educators Journal, and the Triad, the professional journal of the Ohio Music Education Association. Dr. Zerull was a contributing author for On the Nature of Musical Experience, a monograph written by members of the Center for the Study of Education and the Musical Experience at Northwestern University published in 1992, and has authored Getting Started with High School Band, published in 1994 by MENC.

Dr. Zerull has presented clinics at Colorado, Maryland, Ohio and Virginia Music Educators Association Inservices, the Midwest Band and Orchestra Clinic and has appeared as guest conductor at the Great lake Music Camp and for All-County and District Honor Bands in Delaware, Georgia, Maryland, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Virginia.
