Biographies

Catherine Gale is the director of the Ithaca College Jazz Vocal Ensemble, and has been directing the ICJVE & teaching jazz voice as a member of the Ithaca College jazz faculty since 2010. Since moving to Ithaca in 2008, she has sung with many groups in Central New York, including the Ithaca Jazz Quartet/Quintet, the Central New York Jazz Orchestra, and Walter White's "Small Medium @ Large."

For more than 15 years, she performed as a freelance singer in and around New York City, singing with a variety of groups including The Warren Vache Quintet, The Peter Deutchen Orchestra, Manhattan Sound, The Bronx Arts Ensemble and The Swing Mavens. Though much of her work is as a featured singer, Ms Gale has always been a fan of, and a performer in jazz vocal groups. She toured extensively with Swing Fever, and over the years has been a member of such groups as The Swing Syndicate, Lance Hayward Singers, New Voice of Hope, & Sharp Five. In addition to performing, Ms. Gale was on the faculty of New York University as a professor of jazz voice from 1998 to 2008.

Raised in a family of musicians, Ms. Gale has been singing since age three. She attended Oberlin College, and completed her Bachelor of Music degree at Manhattan School of Music.
