Program Notes

Suite for Flute and Clarinet- Jonathan Rainous

The seven-movement Suite for Flute and Clarinet is an exploration of macro- and piece-length forms. The odd-numbered movements are short and lighter in nature, while the even-numbered movements are much more substantial in terms of thematic material, length, and difficulty. The work partners the flute and clarinet; neither one dominates the entire work.

The first movement serves as an introduction to the work as a whole and evokes a peaceful, bucolic scene, transitioning smoothly into the second movement. The second movement makes use of an arch form (ABCBA) to draw attention to the different timbres of the flute and clarinet while they are playing the same or similar melodic lines. The final movement is a grand coda to the whole work. Every major theme from the 28' suite reappears before it draws to a peaceful close.
