Quia ergo femina

Quia ergo femina mortem instruxit, clara virgo illam interemit, et ideo est summa benedictio in feminea forma pre omni creatura, quia Deus factus est homo in dulcissima et beata virgine.

For since a woman drew up death, a virgin gleaming dashed it down, and therefore is the highest blessing (found) in woman’s form before all other creatures. For God was made a human in the sweet and blessed Virgin.

O virga ac diadema

O virga ac diadema purpure regis que es in clausura tua sicut loricæ: Tu frondens floruisti in alia vicissitudine quam Adam omne genus humanum produceret.

O branch and diadem in royal purple clad, who like a shield stand in your cloister strong. You burst forth blooming but with buds quite different than Adam’s progeny, the human race.

Ave, ave, de tuo ventre alia vita processit qua Adam filios suos denudaverat. O flos, tu non germinasti de rore nec de guttis pluvie nec aer desuper te volavit sed divina claritas in nobilissima virga te produxit.

Hail! For from your womb came forth another life, that Adam had stripped from his sons. O bloom, you did not spring from dew nor from the drops of rain, nor has the air flown over you; but radiance divine has brought you forth upon that noblest bough.

O virga, floriditatem tuam Deus in prima die creature sue previderat. Et te Verbo suo auream materiam, o laudabilis Virgo, fecit.

O branch, your blossoming God had seen from his creation. And by his word made you a golden matrix, O Virgin, worthy of our praise.

O quam magnum est in viribus suis latus viri, de quo Deus formam mulieris produxit, quam fecit speculum omnis ornamenti sui et amplexionem omnis creature sue. Inde concinunt celestia organa et miratur omnis terra, o laudabilis Maria, quia Deus te valde amavit.

O, how great in power is that side of man, from which God brought the form of woman forth, a mirror made of all his ornament, and an embrace of all his own creation. The heavens’ symphony sounds, in wonder stands all earth, O Mary, worthy of our praise, for God has loved you more than all.
O quam valde plangendum et lugendum est quod tristicia in crimine per consilium serpentis in mulierem fluxit.
Nam ipsa mulier, quam Deus matrem omnium
posuit, viscera sua cum vulneribus ignorantie decerpsit, et plenum dolorem
generi suo protulit.

Sed, o aurora, de ventre tuo novus sol
processit,
qui omnia crimina Eve abstersit et maiorem benedictionem per te protulit
quam Eva hominibus noccisset.

Unde, o Salvatrix, que novum lumen humano generi
protulisti: collige membra Filii tui ad celestem armoniam.

O cry and weep! How deep the woe!
What sorrow seeped with guilt in womanhood
Because the serpent hissed his wicked plan!
That woman, whom God made the mother of the world,

had pricked her womb with wounds of ignorance the full inheritance of grief
she offered to her offspring.

But from your womb, has come the sun anew;
the guilt of Eve he’s washed away and through you offered humankind a blessing
even greater than the harm that Eve bestowed.
O Lady Savior, who has offered to the human race
a new and brighter light: together join the members of your Son into the heavens’ harmony.

Er ist gekommen in Sturm unt Regen
ihm schlug beklommen mein Herz entgegen.
Wie konnt' ich ahnen daß seine Bahnen sich einen sollten meinen Wegen.

Er ist gekommen in Sturm unt Regen
er hat genommen mein Herz verweegen.
Nahm er das meine? Nahm ich das seine?
Die beiden kamen sich entgegen.

Nun ist gekommen des Frühlings Segen.
Der Freund zieht weiter, ich seh' es heiter,
denn er bleibt mein auf allen Wegen.

He has come in storm and rain
Against him my heart beat anxiously.
How could I have suspected that his path
Should unite with my path.

He has come in storm and rain
He has boldly taken my heart.
Took he mine? Took I his?

They both came together themselves.

Now has come the springtime's blessing
The friend travels on, I look on cheerfully
For he remains mine on all roads.
Sie liebten sich beide

Sie liebten sich beide, doch keiner wollt' es dem andern gestehn. Sie sahen sich an so feindlich, und wollten vor Liebe vergehn. Sie trennten sich endlich und sah'n sich nur noch zuweilen im Traum. Sie waren längst gestorben und wußten es selber kaum.

They loved each other, but neither wanted to confess to the other. They looked at each other so hostily, and would, for love, die. They parted from each other and saw each other only sometimes in a dream. They were long since dead and they hardly knew it.

Lorelei

Ich weiß nicht, was soll es bedeuten, daß ich so traurig bin; ein Märchen aus alten Zeiten, das kommt mir nicht aus dem Sinn.

The air is cool and it grows dark, and peacefully flows the Rhein; the top of the mountain sparkles in the sunset.

Die Luft ist kühl und es dunkelt, und ruhig fließt der Rhein; der Gipfel des Berges funkelt im Abendsonnenschein.

The fairest maiden sits above mysteriously, her golden jewelry sparkles, she combs her golden hair.

Die schönste Jungfrau setzet dort oben wunderbar, ihr gold'nes Geschmeide blitzet, sie kämmt ihr gold'nes Haar.

She combs it with a golden comb and sings a song with it; it has a wonderously powerful melody.

Sie kämmt es mit gold'nem Kamme und singt ein Lied dabei: das hat eine wundersame, gewaltige Melodei.

The boatman in the small boat is seized with fierce sorrow; he sees not the rocky-reef, he looks only upwards into the heights.

Den Schiffer im kleinen Schiffe ergreift es mit wildem Weh; er schaut nicht die Felsenriffe, er schaut nur hinauf in die Höh'.

Ich glaube, die Wellen verschlingen am Ende Schiffer und Kahn; und das hat mit ihrem Singen die Lorelei getan.

I believe, the waves will devour in the end, boatman and small boat; and that with her singing the Lorelei has done.
Il pleure dans mon cœur
Comme il pleut sur la ville
Quelle est cette langueur
Qui pénètre mon cœur?

O bruit doux de la pluie
Par terre et sur les toits!
Pour un cœur qui s‘ennuie
O le bruit de la pluie!

Il pleure sans raison
Dans ce cœur qui s‘écœure.
Quoi! nulle trahison?
Ce deuil est sans raison.

C‘est bien la pire peine
De ne savoir pourquoi,
Sans amour et sans haine,
Mon cœur a tant de peine.

Chevaux de Bois
Tournez, tournez, bons chevaux de bois
Tournez cent tours, tournez mille tours
Tournez souvent et tournez toujours
Tournez, tournez au son des hautbois.

L‘enfant tout rouge et la mère blanche
Le gars en noir et la fille en rose
L‘une à la chose et l‘autre à la pose,
Chacun se paie un sou de demanche.

Tournez, tournez, chevaux de leur cœur,
Tandis qu’autour de tous vos tournois
Clignote l‘œil du filou sournois
Tournez au son du piston vainqueur!

C‘est étonnant comme ça vous soûle
D‘aller ainsie dans ce cirque bête:
Rien dans le ventre et mal dans la tête,
Du mal en masse et du bien en foule.

Tournez, dadas, sans qu’il soit besoin
D‘user jamais de nuls éperons
Pour commander à vos galops ronds
Tournez, tournez, sans espoir de foin.

It weeps in my heart
As it rains on the town
What is this listlessness
That pervades my heart?

Oh soft sound of the rain
On the ground and on the roofs!
For a heart which grows listless
Oh the sound of the rain!

It weeps without reason
In this heart which sickens
What! No betrayal?
This grief is without reason.

It is truly the worst pain
To not know why
Without love and without hatred,
My heart has so much pain.

Turn, turn good horses of wood
Turn a hundred turns, Turn a thousand turns
Turn often and turn forever
Turn to the sound of the oboes.

The child all ruddy and the mother pale
The boy in black and the girl in pink
The one down to earth and the other showing off
Each themselves buys a penny of Sunday fun.

Turn, turn, horses of their hearts,
While around all your turning
Twinkles discreetly the eye of the sly pickpocket
Turn to the sound of the cornet victorious!

It is amazing how this intoxicates you
To go thus in a silly circle:
Nothing in the tummy and an ache in the head
Discomfort in mass and fun in heaps.

Turn, hobbyhorses without the need
To ever use any spurs
To command your gallops around
Turn, turn, without the hope of hay.
Et dépéchez, chevaux de leur âme. And hurry horses of their souls
Déjà voici que sonne à la soupe Already there rings (the bell) to supper
La nuit qui tombe et chasse la troupe The night that falls and drives away the band
De gais buveurs que leur soif affame. Of merry drinkers by their thirst made ravenous.

Tournez, tournez! Le ciel en velours Turn, turn the sky of velvet
D'astres en or se vêt lentement With starts of gold is clothed slowly L'Eglise tinte un glas tristement The church knell tolls sadly.
Tournez au son joyeux des tambours, Turn to the sound of happy drums, turn.

Pierrot

Le bon Pierrot que la foule contemple The good Pierrot whom the crowd gazes at Ayant fini les noces d'Arlequin Having finished the wedding of Harlequin Suit en songeant le boulevard du temple. Follows while dreaming the boulevard of the temple.
Une fillette au souple casaquin. A girl with a loose flowing blouse.
En vain l'agace de son œil coquin In vain she provokes him with her eye teasing
Et cependant mytérieuse et lisse And in the meantime mysterious and smooth
Faisant de lui sa plus chère délice Making of him, her most dear delight
La blanche lune aux cornes de taureau The white moon with the horns of a bull
Jetté un regard de son œil en coulisse Casts a sidelong glance with her eye
A son ami Jean Gaspard Debureau. To her friend Jean Gaspard Debureau.

Songs from Letters

So Like Your Father's (1880)
Janey, a letter came today and a picture of you.
Your expression so like your father's, like your father's Brought back all the years.
Janey, a picture of you...
Like your father's, brought back all the years.

He Never Misses (1880)
I met your father "Wild Bill Hickok" near Abilene.
A bunch of outlaws were trying to kill him.
I crawled through the brush to warn him,
Bill killed them all.
I'll never forget...
Blood running down his face while he used two guns.
I crawled through the brush to warn him.
Bill killed them all.
He never aimed, and he was never known to miss.
A Man Can Love Two Women (1880)
Don't let jealousy get you, Janey.
It kills love
It kills love and all nice things.
Don't let jealousy get you, Janey.
It drove your father from me.
I lost everything I loved,
I lost everything I loved except for you.
A man can love two women,
Love two women at a time.
He loved her and he still loved me because of you,
Janey.

A Working Woman (1882-1893)
Your mother works for a living.
One day I have chickens, and the next day feathers.
These days I'm driving a stagecoach.
For a while I worked in Russell's saloon.
But when I worked there all the virtuous women planned to run me out of town,
So these days I'm driving a stagecoach.
Your mother works for a living.

I'll be leaving soon to join Bill Cody's Wild West Show.
I'll ride a horse bareback, standing up, shooting my Stetson hat twice,
Throwing it into the air and landing on my head.

These are hectic days, like hell let out for noon.
I mind my own bus'ness, but remember the one thing the world hates
Is a woman who minds her own bus'ness.
All the virtuous women have bastards and shotgun weddings.
I have nursed them through childbirth and my only pay
Is a kick in the pants when my back is turned.
These other women are pot bellied, hairy legged
And they look like something the cat dragged in.
I wish I had the pow'r to damn their souls to hell!

Your mother works for a living.

All I Have (1902)
I am going blind.
All hope of seeing you again is dead, Janey.
What have I ever done except one blunder after another?
All I have left are these pictures of you.
You and your father, pictures, all I have,
I am going blind.
Don't pity me, Janey,
Forgive my faults and all the wrong I did you.

Goodnight, little girl,
Goodnight, little girl, and may God keep you from harm.
