The Conductors

Huw Edwards is now entering his ninth season as Music Director of Portland’s Columbia Symphony Orchestra, and has consistently received critical approval from audiences, soloists and the press for his intense performances and imaginative programming. Recent highlights have included Malcolm Arnold’s Second Symphony, Ravel’s Mother Goose, Symphony No. 1 by Elgar, Richard Strauss’ Death & Transfiguration, and Bruckner’s epic Fifth Symphony. The CSO’s music program has expanded greatly under Huw’s leadership: it now enjoys a second concert series in East Metro, plays a “Symphonic Safari” each summer, performs a pair of Holiday Concerts in December, the whole orchestra performs at the Gala Dinner in January, it plays the National Anthem at a Trailblazers game each year, and presents an “encore performance” at a novel venue around Portland each May. Huw is garnering a notable reputation for his performances and devotion to the music of Beethoven, Elgar, Sibelius and Bruckner, as well as his series of annual commissions from Pacific Northwest composers.

Mr. Edwards has also completed five successful seasons as Music Director of the Olympia Symphony Orchestra in Washington, where there is a palpable sense of excitement following his appointment. After landmark sold-out seasons the past two years, Edwards is credited with improving the Orchestra, initiating an expansive Education/Outreach program and being very active in the community.

Mr. Edwards has performed with the Oregon Symphony, Vancouver Symphony, worked with the symphony orchestras of Dallas and Memphis, as well as numerous ensembles—both nationally and internationally. Huw has served as cover conductor for both the Seattle Symphony and Oregon Symphony and has conducted at the YMA music camp in Salem since 2004. In July Huw was invited—for a third time—to lead the Wisconsin Chamber Orchestra before 20,000 people at one of their famous “Concerts on the Square”, and also led the second annual “Concert at the Capitol” in Olympia. Huw recently made a notable debut with the Eugene Symphony and was invited to be the conductor at the inaugural Annas Bay Music Festival in August 2006, where he conducted two 20th-century American operas.

From 2002-2005 Mr. Edwards was Music Director of the Seattle Youth Symphony Orchestras, and was a faculty member at the Marrowstone Music Festival (1998 to 2005). Mr. Edwards moved to Seattle after seven memorable seasons (1995-2002) as Music Director of the Portland Youth Philharmonic (PYP), which included memorable tours to Canada, New Zealand and Australia. Huw was invited back to guest conduct the PYP this spring for a three-month residency and performed concerts of music by Britten and Bruckner in Portland, Newberg, Forest Grove and at St. Mary's Cathedral. Huw is also actively sought as a conductor, clinician and adjudicator with All-State and Honors Orchestras around the USA.

Born in South Wales (UK), Mr. Edwards holds degrees from the University of Surrey in England and SMU in Dallas, which he attended on scholarship in 1988. Huw came to the Pacific Northwest from Chicago, where he was a lecturer at Northwestern University and a doctoral candidate. His principal teachers have been Simon Johnson and Barry Wordsworth (London), Anshel Brusilow and Eduardo Mata (Dallas), and Victor Yampolsky (Chicago).

Mark Fonder, professor of music, is the conductor of the Ithaca College Concert Band and has been teaching conducting and instrumental music education courses at Ithaca College since 1989. From 1994 to 2003, he was the Chairman of the Music Education Department. He is active as a guest conductor, adjudicator, school music consultant, and clinician and has served in these capacities throughout the United States. Internationally, he has guest conducted, given research presentations or adjudicated bands in Austria, Japan, Canada, China, Singapore, Sweden and the United Kingdom. Dr. Fonder, a graduate of and twice a fellowship recipient at the University of Illinois, was director of bands at Park Falls (Wisconsin) High School and was on the faculties of the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay and University of Texas-San Antonio prior to coming to New York. He has also served on the faculties of The University of Washington, VanderCook College and the Eastman School of Music. Dr. Fonder's research has been published in various journals including the Music Educators Journal, Band Directors Guide, Instrumentalist, Journal of Band Research, Council for Research in Music Education and the Journal of Research in Music Education. He was chair of the Music Educators Journal Editorial Committee from 1998-2002 and is currently the editor of the Journal of Historical Research in Music Education. Dr. Fonder has played principal trombone with the Green Bay (Wisconsin) Symphony, the Green Bay Packer Band, and the San Antonio Brass, and for such entertainers as Robert Goulet, Rich Little, and Rita Moreno. In 1987, Dr. Fonder was awarded the National Band Association-Wisconsin Chapter Citation of Excellence, in 1998, the Ithaca College President's Recognition Award and has been the recipient of a University of Wisconsin teaching fellowship. He has been elected to Phi Delta Kappa, an honorary education fraternity, Phi Kappa Phi, an honorary scholars fraternity, Pi Kappa Lambda, an honorary music fraternity and the prestigious American Bandmasters Association. He was selected to Who's Who Among America's Teachers in 2005-2006 and Who's Who in America in 2008.
Janet Galván, Professor of Music at Ithaca College, conducts the Ithaca College Women's Chorale, the Ithaca College Chorus, and is Artistic Director for the Ithaca Children's Choir. Dr. Galván's contribution to choral music was recognized by her New York colleagues in 1995 when she received the New York Outstanding Choral Director Award.

Dr. Galván has conducted national, regional, and all-state choral festivals throughout the United States. Most recently, she conducted the Alaska High School Mixed All-State Choir, the Maine All-State Mixed Choir, Vermont All-State Mixed Choir, and the Kansas All-State Mixed Choir. She was the 6th national honor choir conductor in the history of ACDA. Dr. Galván was the conductor of the North American Children's Chorale which performed annually in Carnegie Hall from its creation in 1995 until 2005. In 2002 she conducted the Mormon Tabernacle Choir. Her own choral groups have been chosen to perform at national, regional, and state music conferences, invitational choral festivals, and in concerts in the United Kingdom and Europe.

Galván has served as master teacher and clinician at national, regional, and state conferences of ACDA and the MENC. She has also been featured at VII Curso Internacional de Regencia Coral in Brazil and in workshops in the United Kingdom, Belgium, Canada, and the 2002 World Symposium on Choral Music. Galván has been recognized as one of the country's leading conducting teachers, and her students have received first place awards and been finalists in both the graduate and undergraduate divisions of the ACDA biennial National Choral Conducting Competition.

Dr. Galván was one of the invited authors for GIA's second edition of Teaching Music through Performance in Choir. Her expertise in treble repertoire led to an association with Roger Dean Publishing Company in the origin of two choral series for treble voices. She is also the series advisor to Latin Accents, a series with Boosey & Hawkes. Dr. Galván contributed a chapter on movement in the choral rehearsal to GIA's The School Choral Program: Philosophy, Planning, Organizing and Teaching. Her article on the changing voice was published in the International Federation of Choral Music Journal in August of 2007. Dr. Galván was a member of the Grammy Award-winning Robert Shaw Festival Singers during Mr. Shaw's final years.
Elizabeth Núñez, Associate Conductor for the award-winning Young People's Chorus of New York City, directs the Prelude and Cantare divisions and serves as vocal coach. Since joining the YPC Staff in 2004, Mrs. Núñez has conducted at the 92nd Street Y, prepared the choir to appear on television including "Regis and Kelly," "The Martha Stewart Show" with Simon Cowell's "Il Divo" and for the lighting of the 5th Avenue Snowflake. The chorus has also been featured with the Ensemble for the Romantic Century. As the Director of YPC Satellite and Partner School Programs, Mrs. Núñez continues to work with New York City public schools to bring a choral experience to over 750 children a year throughout the city.

Mrs. Núñez continues to sing professionally and recently made her Metropolitan Opera House debut, singing the soprano solo in Mendelssohn's "A Mid-Summer Night's Dream." She has also appeared in New York's Lincoln Center and Boston's Jordan Hall, and maintains an active voice studio. She made her debut with the Santa Fe Desert Chorale in 2002. Other solo appearances include performances of Handel's Messiah, Britten's Rejoice in the Lamb, and the role of Filia in Carissimi's Jephte. As a choral clinician, she has given workshops around the country and in New York for the NYC Department of Education, the Metropolitan Opera Guild, the NYC School for Strings, and NYSSMA.

Mrs. Núñez received a Bachelor of Music Education at Lee University where she was awarded Music Education Graduate of the Year, and her Master of Music Education from the University of Oklahoma, where she also completed her Kodaly education certification. Mrs. Núñez studied conducting with Dennis Shrock and Janet Galván and voice with Dolores Leffingwell and currently with Shirlee Emmons.

At Lee University, Mrs. Núñez served as Assistant Conductor of the Children's Chorale and student conductor of both the Chorale and Choral Union. At the University of Oklahoma, she served as the Associate Conductor of the Norman Children's Chorus and frequently conducted choral ensembles at the University of Oklahoma including the Kodaly Workshop Chorus, University Choir, and University Chorale and was responsible for teaching undergraduate music appreciation classes.
