TRANSLATIONS—CHORUS

Beati quorum via
Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord.
(Psalm CXIX, 1.)

Der Tanz (The Dance)
Youth talks and dreams so much of dances, revels and banquets;
Then all at once it achieves its illusory goal,
and we hear it sighing and complaining.
Now the pain is in the head, now in the heart;
vanished are all the heavenly pleasures.
“Give me back my health, just this once!”
Is its plea as it gazes longingly up to heaven.

Nachthelle (Night-brightness)
The night is clear and pure, in the brightness of all radiance.
The houses look wondrous, silvered-over completely.
Within me it is so wonderfully bright, so full to overflowing,
and prevails therein free and clear, completely without sorrow and resentment.
I cannot grasp within my heart all that rich light;
it wants to get out, it must get out, the last barrier breaks.

Lebenslust (Zest for Life)
He who feels zest for life is never alone;
To be alone is tedious—Who can enjoy that?
To live together in an intimate circle,
With a fond embrace—That is a joy to the soul!

30PIOT bbIOT (Trumpet’s Dawn)
The signal of dawn described by old Dante is revealed.
On my lips the unfinished poem is disappearing; the dark spirit begins to fly away. I hear familiar sounds; sounds alive. How often you have appeared where I walked; on the quiet path are sounds of hope, a new dawn.

Brandelli di Cielo (Pieces of Heaven)
Ours were the meadows and the singing of the grasshoppers.
Ours were the meadows of the season and the sun had the color of wheat and the song of grasshoppers. Now, even the blackbird is silent and fields are tinged with haze. The desolate springtimes await us.
The desolate springtimes await us and the pieces of heaven.

Avinu Malkeinu (Our Father, Our King)
Our Father, our King, hear our prayer.
Our Father, our King, we have sinned before Thee.
Our Father, our King, have mercy upon us and upon our children.
Our Father, our King, keep far from our country pestilence, war and famine
Our Father, our King, cause all hate and oppression to vanish from the earth.
Our Father, our King, inscribe us for blessing in the book of life.
Our Father, our King, grant unto us a year of happiness.
