Psalm 126: 5-6
Who with grieving soweth, he shall with gladness harvest.
He goeth forth and weepeth, yet bearing precious sowing,
Returning rejoicing he bringeth bountless harvest.

Reincarnations
Poems by James Stephens
1. Mary Hines
2. Anthony O Daly
3. The Coolin

Ave maris stella
Hail ocean’s star, God’s mother dear
Likewise ever a virgin, blest heavenly gate.
Receiving that Ave from Gabriel’s lips
Settle us in peace, reversing Eva’s name.
Loose their chains for the guilty, bring forth Light for the blind:
Woes of ours dispel, good in all things ask for us.
Show thyself to be a Mother: may He receive through thee our prayers,
Who for us was born and designed to be Thy Son.
Virgin all excelling, among all most meek
Us from sin set free, meek make thou and chaste.
Life on us bestow that is pure, a way prepare that is safe
In order that seeing Jesus, always we may rejoice.
Be praise to God the Father, to Most High Christ be praise,
And to the Spirit Holy, to the Three be honor equally. Amen.

Praise His Holy Name!

Dr. James Kjelland is Associate Professor of Music Education at Northwestern University where he teaches and coordinates instrumental music education and string pedagogy. He earned Bachelor and Master of Music degrees from the University of Wisconsin, Madison, and a Ph.D. in Music Education at the University of Texas at Austin. His teaching career began in the public schools of Middletown, Wisconsin, where he taught instrumental music grades 4-12. Prior to coming to Northwestern, he held positions at the University of Southern California and the University of North Texas.

In addition to his teaching, Dr. Kjelland is nationally known for his in-service clinics and summer workshops in string pedagogy and orchestra development. He is frequently a featured presenter for such organizations as American String Teachers Association, the National School Orchestra Association, and Music Educators National Conference. He is also a clinician with Alfred Publishing Company, the Glaesel division of the Selmer Company, and is in demand as a guest conductor of all-state and regional honor orchestras throughout the United States. Dr. Kjelland's publications include co-authorship of Strictly Strings, a Comprehensive String Class Method, volume I and II, (Highland/Etling, 1992, 94), Strictly Strings: Orchestra Companion, (Highland/Etling, 1996), and Teaching Stringed Instruments: A Course of Study (MENC, 1991). In addition, his authoritative articles have appeared in such professional journals as the American String Teacher, The Instrumentalist, National School Orchestra Association Bulletin, and Bulletin of the Council of Research in Music Education.

Ms. Jo Ellen Miano is Associate Professor at Plattsburgh State University of New York and heads the choral-vocal program there. She is an active choral and eurhythmics clinician and offers workshops nationally at both the public school and university levels. In New York State, Ms. Miano works regularly with many dedicated school music teachers. She participated in the New York State School Music Association 1998 P.E.A.K. Festival, a state pilot project that focused on the creative process within the elementary classroom music program.

She has conducted All-County and Area All-State Mixed Choruses in New York. Her longtime interest in the relationship between music and physical movement prompted her study and certification in Dalcroze eurhythmics at Carnegie Mellon University. Ms. Miano presented eurhythmics application sessions for both elementary and high school levels at the 1998 New York State Winter Conference of NYSSMA. Her certification thesis, “Using Eurhythmics to Deepen Musical Understanding in Youth and Adult Choirs,” examines how the rhythmic movement component of Dalcroze eurhythmics can be used in choral warm-ups and when exploring concepts such as ensemble breathing and the choral attack, anacrusis and phrasing, and text stress and its significance to choral performance. Active at Plattsburgh State as a conductor and voice teacher, Ms. Miano also enjoys producing or music directing staged productions, such as a Renaissance Re-enactment Madrigal Dinner and Amahl and the Night Visitors (Menotti). She is Music Director of the Champlain Valley Oratorio Society, which focuses on the performance of major choral-orchestral works. Ms. Miano holds a Bachelor of Music degree from Boston University and a Master of Music degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Dr. Stephen Peterson was appointed Director of Bands at Ithaca College in 1998, where he currently conducts the Wind Ensemble and teaches courses in conducting and wind literature. From 1988-1998 he served as Associate Director of Bands at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois. Dr. Peterson was also Conductor of the renowned Northshore Concert Band. He served on the faculty at Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, Texas and has several years of successful teaching experience in the public schools in Arizona. Dr. Peterson holds the Doctor of Music degree from Northwestern University and Master’s and Bachelor’s degrees from Arizona State University. His ensembles have appeared before conventions of the American Bandmaster’s Association, the College Band Director’s National Association, the National Association of College Wind and Percussion Instructors, the American School Band Director’s Association, at Orchestra Hall with the Chicago Symphony Chorus, and at Lincoln Center. Peterson currently serves as a new music reviewer for The Instrumentalist Magazine, and is active as a conductor and clinician throughout the United States, Canada, and the Republic of China. He is a member of the Music Educator’s National Conference, the College Band Directors National Association, the World Association of Symphonic Bands and Ensembles, the New York State School Music Association, and was recently honored with membership in the prestigious American Bandmaster’s Association.
