The Ithaca College Men's Chorus, Ithacappella, is a student run ensemble consisting of eighteen members across all majors at IC. The ensemble is currently in its fourth year of existence, and continues to perform on campus and in the community, as well as touring extensively to share their music with others. This January, the group spent a portion of their semester break in the studio recording the first half of their CD, to be released this summer. The Men's Chorus would like to thank Mark Simmons for sharing his expertise with the ensemble through rehearsals and performance. Mr. Simmons is the second IC faculty member to direct the ensemble over the years, and hopefully this tradition of interaction with the Ithaca College faculty will continue.
