Kimber Billow received his Bachelors Degree in Music Education from Mansfield University and his Masters Degree in Education from Ithaca College. From 1969 to 1972 he taught junior high vocal music in Elmira, New York, and then moved to Elmira Southside High School to become Director of the Concert Choir, Madrigal Singers and Show Choir. During his years at Southside, the Concert Choir and Show Choir appeared at the NYSSMA Conference, performed in Poland, Germany and Austria, and the Madrigal Singers have performed in Sweden, Denmark and Iceland.

Mr. Billow spent the 1989-90 school year as a faculty member at Ithaca College School of Music and has recently received the Elmira Star-Gazette "Outstanding Educator Award" and the New York State American Choral Directors "Outstanding Conductor" award. He is a frequent guest conductor of County and Area All-State Choirs, and presents many lecture/demonstrations on movement in the music classroom.

Janet Galván is Professor of Music at Ithaca College. Dr. Galván’s received the New York Outstanding Choral Director Award in 1995. In great demand as a guest conductor, she has conducted all-state and larger regional honor choral festivals throughout the United States. She conducted the first university Women’s Honors Choir at the Eastern Division American Choral Directors Association Conference in Washington, D.C. in 1994, the first Western Division Children’s Honors Choir in 1996, and the third ACDA National Children’s Honors Choir in March of 1995.

She was the sixth national honors choir conductor in the over 40-year history of ACDA. Dr. Galván is also the conductor of the North American Children’s Chorale which she conducts annually in Carnegie Hall. She has conducted the New England Symphonic Orchestra and the State Philharmonic of Bialystok, Poland in concert in Carnegie Hall. Most recently, she conducted the All-Eastern MENC High School Mixed Chorus, New Jersey Mixed All-State Chorus and Orchestra, Utah Festival Children’s Chorus, the first Kansas ACDA Women’s Honor Choir, the first South Carolina Women’s Honor Choir, the first Maryland Women’s All-State Women’s Chorus, and the Wyoming Mixed All-State Chorus. Dr. Galván conducted the Mormon Tabernacle Choir in its weekly broadcast in March of 2001. In September of 2001 she was one of two clinicians at a choral conference in Brazil. The Ithaca College Women’s Chorale has performed at Carnegie Hall and New York’s Lincoln Center. In the fall of 1999 they were the artists in residence at the first International Women In Song Festival in Toronto. Dr. Galván has conducted and taught conducting in England, Scotland, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, and France. She conducted the Ithaca College Chorus and the Cayuga Chamber Orchestra at the State Theater in December 2001. Her expertise in treble repertoire led to an association with Roger Dean Publishing Company in the origin of the Janet Galván Women's Choir Series and Roots and Wings, a series for young voices. She is the series advisor to Latin Accents, a series with Boosey & Hawkes. She was also a member of the Grammy Award-winning Robert Shaw Festival Chorus during Mr. Shaw’s final years.

Jeffrey Grogan is Acting Director of Bands at Baylor University. He conducts the Baylor Wind Ensemble and teaches courses in conducting and music education. Professor Grogan recently traveled to Europe where he conducted the Bohuslava Martinu Philharmonic Orchestra of Zlín, Czech Republic. During that time he studied with several conductors including Mariusz Smolij (resident conductor, Houston Symphony), Tomáš Koutník (Prague Conservatory), Johannes Schlaefli (Musik-Hochschule Winterthur Zürich), and Kirk Trevor (music director/conductor, Knoxville Symphony and Indianapolis Chamber Orchestra).

In addition to his duties at Baylor, Mr. Grogan is Assistant Conductor and Pre-Concert Lecturer for the Waco Symphony Orchestra and co-conductor of the Waco Symphony Youth Orchestra. Prior to joining the Baylor faculty, he was a member of the faculty at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor and taught in the public schools of the DeSoto Independent School District in DeSoto, Texas. Mr. Grogan holds degrees from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor and from Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, Texas.

Paula Holcomb became Director of Bands at the State University of New York College at Fredonia in fall 1999 after holding the same position for 20 years at Central College in Pella, Iowa. Under her direction, the Symphonic Wind Ensemble and the Symphonic Band toured the United States, Canada, Europe, and Mexico. The Symphonic Wind Ensemble also performed in Alice Tully Hall of New York City's Lincoln Center. Holcomb holds a doctorate in instrumental conducting from Northwestern University, where she studied with John P. Paynter.
Dr. Holcomb received bachelor and master of music education degrees from Drake University in Des Moines. Having served as an adjudicator and guest conductor of bands and orchestras in 38 states, Mexico, Europe, Australia, and Canada, Dr. Holcomb has presented at many international conferences including the World Association of Symphonic Band and Ensembles in Spain, the International Society for the Research and Investigation of Wind Music in Hungary, the Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic in Chicago, and the College Band Directors National Association. Former assistant principal horn with the Des Moines Symphony and past president of the Iowa Music Educators Association, she was recently elected North Central Division President of the College Band Directors National Association.

William W. Wiedrich is associate professor of conducting at the University of South Florida School of Music (Tampa) where he conducts the University of South Florida Symphony Orchestra and Wind Ensemble. He heads the graduate program in conducting, and teaches conducting privately throughout the state of Florida, where he is often engaged as a guest conductor and clinician. He is also Music Director and Conductor of the Tampa Bay Youth Orchestra, in association with the Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center.

Prior to his appointment in Tampa, Dr. Wiedrich held faculty conducting positions at East Carolina University and Michigan State University, and he served as visiting professor and conductor at the University of Michigan, where he later earned his doctorate. His teachers include Gustav Meier, H. Robert Reynolds, and Larry Rachleff, as well as Gunther Schuller at the Festival at Sandpoint. He also attended the conducting seminar at Tanglewood. He is a member of the board of directors of "Quorum", a professional contemporary music ensemble, and is a founding member of "Newmusic", a similar ensemble new to the Tampa Bay area. A published composer and arranger, Dr. Wiedrich is in demand as a clinician and adjudicator throughout the United States. He is active in commissioning works for orchestra, chamber ensemble, and wind ensemble, and groups with whom he has collaborated have consistently received praise for their sensitive performances.
