DEVOTED TO MUSIC,
DRAMA AND
PHYSICAL EDUCATION

ITHACA, NEW YORK
DEDICATION

We respectfully dedicate the 1932 edition of the Cayugan to our retiring president, George C. Williams, whose faith in vision, belief in principle, and devotion to purpose during thirty-five years of service find significant expression in this, the fortieth anniversary year of Ithaca College.
GEORGE C. WILLIAMS
FOREWORD

If this book can but sustain memories of priceless friendships and experiences; if it can cheer your heart with the warmth of fond recollections throughout your future conquest for fame and honor, our purpose will have been achieved.

ACTIVITIES
Activities

The Little Theatre Players have enjoyed a marvelous season, and one for which the students of Ithaca College are properly appreciative. The first offering was Beau Brummell, Clyde Fitch's regal drama of English society in the eighteenth century. It was presented in the Strand Theatre before enthusiastic audiences in November, and was the first exhibition of the rare directorial talents of Ithaca College's new producer and dramatist, Walter Charles Roberts. Edwin Whittaker, in the title role, turned in one of the most polished student performances in the history of the dramatic school.

The Gondoliers, as revived by students in the Music Education department, maintained the splendid reputation for Gilbert and Sullivan production which the school had gained in previous years. The operetta played the Strand in December, with gratifying results to the cast and directors, Mr. Lautner, Mr. Fay and Mr. Roberts. Leading performances were done by Joseph Sheckard, Clifford Ormsby, Martha Holland and Eunice Elder, who were ably supported by Elwood Schwan, Clarke Maynard, Kathryn Stickel and Dorothy Little.
Damn Deborah, written and directed by Walter C. Roberts, was presented in Little Theatre in February, as an Ithaca College contribution to the Washington Bicentennial. It was a rollicking comedy of the Revolutionary War period and its situations were gleaned from actual Colonial history. It concerned the experiences of an actual historical character, one Deborah Sampson, who for months bore arms as a soldier in the Continental Army. The title role was shared by Frances Noble, Cecelia Kiefer, and Virginia Herman. The leading male role was shared by John Fague and Thomas Murray.

In February, Mr. Lyon's Music Education department chorus presented Cesar Franck's oratorio, The Beatitudes, in the Congregational Church. The chorus parts were beautifully done and the solos were done superlatively by Joseph Lautner, John Baumgartner, Elwood Schwan and Clifford Ormsby. The organ accompaniment was done by Maurice Whitney.

In April, appeared R. C. Sherriff's tremendous war tragedy, Journey's End. Superlative work was done by the entire cast. It was without question the most difficult undertaking attempted to date by the expression school. William Petty and Raymond Brown shared honors for the leading role. Direction was by Walter C. Roberts.

The season is scheduled to close late in May with the presentation of Midsummer Night's Dream. The entire expression school will take part. Musical accompaniment will be furnished by the Little Theatre Orchestra.

There is no doubt but that this has been the finest season Little Theatre patrons have enjoyed. Thanks to the professional attitude of Director Newens and Mr. Roberts, their students have done consistently superior work. No small amount of credit may be attributed Archelaus Chadwick, whose exquisite creations have mounted each of the presentations mentioned, and to Mr. Jay W. Fay, whose Little Theatre Orchestra added materially to the success of these productions.

Ithaca College Band presented two chapel concerts during the year, the second of which was offered on St. Patrick's day in honor of Patrick Conway. They alternated with the Symphony Orchestra of the College in presenting a series of Sunday afternoon concerts composed of Beethoven Symphonies, and other symphonic literature. These recitals were presented under the baton of Jay W. Fay, Director of the Band and Orchestra department.

The Westminster Choir enjoyed two extensive tours, penetrating far into the Southlands on their initial trip in November. The Messiah of Handel was presented as a fortieth anniversary contribution at Christmas time in the First Methodist Church. Elaborate plans for the Tallbott music festival in June are now under way.

The assembly chapel hours have been of exceptional interest. They were in charge of the departmental directors, who presented such admirable features as the Westminster Choir, the Band, the Symphony Orchestra and several lecturers of note.

Varsity Football

Ithaca College Varsity Football squad ably completed its first intercollegiate pigskin schedule with an enviable record, winning three out of five games. Oswego State Teachers College, Cortland Normal, and Hartwick College were defeated without much difficulty; and, although the battle was lost to St. Bonaventure College, the blue and gold men played a strong, defensive game with a resulting score of 26-13. St. Lawrence Varsity was tackled in lieu of the St. Lawrence freshman team, and was the only club which blanked the score of Ithaca's battling squad. The squad was composed of Leavitt (Captain), Britton, Crawley, Farley, Leonard, Kornowski, Messer, Manor, Nehring, O'Connell, Patrick, Sawyer, Snider, and Hickey, as regulars; and Buswell, Cole, Cioneck, Collard, Doorley, Knapp, Long, Masson, Reed, Roderick, Sharpsteen, Tibbetts, Vicarel, Mooney, Lindh, and Bergin, as substitutes. J. Freeman coached the team and Martin was manager.

Varsity Soccer

Soccer at Ithaca College is an infant sport. This year, Coach Crichton's main object was to establish a team so that next season's squad would have a nucleus with which to work. In the first game, which was played against Panzer College, the Ithacans outclassed their opponents in the first half, but were finally beaten. A return clash with Panzer again found the blue and gold team on the short end of the score. The third game was lost to Cortland Normal on Percy Field. On the following Friday, the Ithacans went to Cortland to revenge the Normal eleven. The supremacy of the teams could not be settled even after having played two overtime periods, and the score was a tie. The squad was composed of Bernhard, Mackey, Meade, Hoffa, Williams, Muir, Hess, Peters, Pitcher, McGinn, Smith, Benjamin, Long, Crichton, Campbell, and Loescher, as regulars; and Walden, Pasulo, Holden, Guptill, and Western as substitutes. Peters was manager.

Freshman Football

The first Freshman Football team in the history of our institution, under the direction of Coach Dugan, played a successful season, having opposed Waterloo High School, George Junior Republic, Mynderse Academy and the St. Lawrence Frosh. The Squad consisted of Ainsworth, Silva, Persia, Eaton, Recordon, Goodfellow, Vezzie, Callahan, O'Reilly, Tank and Goodman, as regulars; and Westervelt, Wolner, Green, Bushnell, Nugent, D'Andrea, Ariole, Delizo, Messersly, Harrington, and Eldridge as substitutes. Westerh was manager.

Varsity Basketball

The Ithaca College Varsity Basketball squad had plenty of action, playing hard, clean basketball and finishing the season with more than a majority of the scheduled games won. Two new opponents added to the cagers' schedule were Allegheny College, and the Albany College of Pharmacy. The high scorers for Ithaca College, in order of their standing for the season, were: Patricks, Petras, Hickey, Kornsowski, and Long. The squad consisted of Petras (Captain), O'Brien, Kornsowski, Long, Patrick, and Hickey, as regulars; and Sharpsteen, Hoffa, D'Andrea, McIntosh, and Fasulo, as substitutes. Tibbetts was manager.

Varsity Wrestling

During the past season the Ithaca College Varsity wrestlers, under Coach O'Connell, did some exceptional wrestling and competed against evenly matched teams. The star men of Ithaca were Britton and DeGraw, the latter not having lost one match in his intercollegiate grappling career. The squad was composed of the following men; 118-lb. class—DeGraw; 126-lb. class—Liverett; 135-lb. class—Goodman, Eldridge; 145-lb. class—Cole (Captain), Goodman; 155-lb. class—Mead, Allen; 165-lb. class—Vezzie, Goodfellow; 175-lb. class—Britton. Meade was manager.

The Women's Self-Governing Association upholds its object to maintain a high standard of conduct and decorum, and to strengthen the spirit of unity and individual responsibility among the women of Ithaca College by practical, regulated cooperation. We measure the success of this organization by the few cases brought before the W.S.G.A. Board, the representation at a state collegiate conference, and the establishment of new precedents in the dining halls.

The aim of the Oracle is to recognize those students who demonstrate high standards in college life, in scholarship, in character and in service, and to help to raise the standard of scholarship and to encourage active college spirit of the truest type in the entire student body.

Each year the Oracle society works out a definite project. Last year a cup was awarded to the Sophomore class for attaining the highest average in scholarship. The principal project of this year is to make the membership of Oracle retroactive — to elect those who graduated from Ithaca College before the founding of the Oracle, on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, personality and service.

Psi Chapter of Delta Psi Kappa was founded in Ithaca College February 12, 1932. Although this is a young fraternity, it has been functioning as a local sorority, Alpha Sigma Chi, since March 14, 1930. The national organization was petitioned in 1931, and the local chapter was installed the following February.
In the contest among the fraternities and sororities of Ithaca College for securing Cayugan subscriptions, the winning group was to have been announced in the annual. The Cayugan staff is happy to announce that Phi Mu Alpha fraternity was the victorious organization, securing forty subscriptions to the year-book. Joseph Borelli, Raymond Brown, Charles Davis and Clifford Ormsby were the salesmen who were immediately responsible for their fraternity’s success. Honorable mention is given to Delta Phi sorority.
