Notes

Variations on a Daydream
This composition is based on a short piano piece called "A Daydream for Micaela," written for me by my grandfather R.D. Mooney. Dan Mooney was a fantastic jazz pianist and a music educator in the town of Carmel, NY. Words cannot describe the kind of man my grandfather was, but I am confident that he has touched the lives of everyone who was fortunate enough to know him. Each section of this composition is a brief reflection of him as a person and a musician.

I would like to thank Matt Recio for all his help in creating this piece, and a special thank you to my family for their continuous support.

Now in its second century, the Ithaca College School of Music affirms its fundamental belief that music and the arts are essential components of the human experience. The School of Music prepares students to be world-class professionals and the music leaders of tomorrow - ready to transform individuals and communities by advancing the art of music.
